Duncan Couple Charged With Murder of Chinese

3-Year-Old Case Reopened By Police

A three-year-old murder mystery of who killed 83-year-old Chinese, Chew Deb, outside a Duncan auto court, June 30, 1950, has been reopened.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police revealed here today that Cecil Christopher Sampson, 30, and his wife, Edna, 27, have been charged with murdering the aged Chinese.

The Sampsons, both of Duncan, appeared in RCMP court on July 10 and were remanded to Oakalla prison farm to appear at Duncan police court July 18 when date for preliminary hearing will be set.

They were arrested by an alert constable in Campbell, California. The constable was called to the home of the Sampson's to investigate a matrimonial dispute. He overheard statements which aroused his suspicions.

A check with police at Duncan confirmed his suspicions and the couple was returned to Canada about ten days ago.

The Times of Monday, July 3, 1950, reports the murder and robbery of Chew Deb, 82, who died in Duncan Hospital two days before.

The Chinese was found unconscious in his one-room shack.

He had been struck down by a blow from a bottle, it appeared, dragged outside and beaten with a stone. He had crawled into his home.

The slain man was easily identifiable from scars on his face, which had been partially blown away in an explosion some years before.

His cabin, on the outskirts of Duncan, near Riverside Auto Court, had been ransacked. The place was in confusion.

Provincial Police, then holding jurisdiction in Duncan, instituted a widespread search. But they did not disclose the identity of their suspects.

First U.S. Food For Germans Shipped Today

Another Cargo Ready Next Week

NEW YORK (UP) — The U.S.S. American Inventor sailed for Germany today with the first shipment of food offered by President Eisenhower to hungry East Germans.

Longshoremen hoisted tons of flour, dried milk and lard aboard the freighter at a Hudson River pier Thursday. The ship sailed for Hamburg at 2 p.m. with about 2,800 tons of foodstuffs.

The balance of the 4,500-ton first shipment, valued at $2,000,000, will be sent aboard another freighter next Tuesday.

There was no certainty the food would ever reach kitchens of Communist-dominated East Germans. Red leaders have denied a food shortage existed, and rejected the President's offer of food as a "propaganda trick."

The food was consigned for delivery to the U.S. high commissioner of Germany, and will be unloaded in the British zone of Germany, in nine days.

Cargo handlers were spurred on their job by a sign hanging over a hatch on the American Inventor. It said: "First food relief shipment to East Germany by MSA (Mutual Security Agency) on United States Lines Ss. American Inventor."

The ship's captain said he thought the gift of food was "a worthwhile thing."

"People who stand in the street and throw rocks at tanks have to be backed up with food," he said, referring to recent hunger riots in East Berlin.

KOREA FRONT STABILIZED

Chinese Count 14,200 Dead

By FREDERICK C. PAINTON

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—The Chinese Communists who smashed an estimated eight miles into the central front are being forced back under a combined infantry-tank-artillery-plane attack and are surrendering in big numbers, front dispatches said today.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, commanding the 8th Army, said in a special statement that the front is now stabilized and that the United Nations forces are pressing forward.

See Story of Canadian Participation, Page 3.

Eighth Army headquarters said that the Reds lost 14,200 men killed and 6,800 wounded in the week ended Tuesday—and their casualty rate has shot upward since then.

Regrouped, reinforced UN troops gained up to 1,000 yards—more than half a mile—on the left flank Friday after gaining one mile Thursday.

United Press front dispatches described tank-infantry teams knifing into the Chinese lines in ever-growing attacks and said one dominating hill and been recaptured by storm in Friday's advance after an all-day battle.

The dispatches told how hundreds of Allied planes hurled flaming napalm gasoline jelly into the Chinese to burn them to death. Other planes dropped bombs and massed artillery poured hundreds of tons of shells into the enemy lines.

Prisoners Are a Problem

"The Chinese are surrendering all over the place," an American advisory officer on the western flank said.

Tank crews are asking "what to do with all these Chinks."

"Following the Communist attack on the Kumsong front . . . the 8th Army has succeeded in stabilizing the front," Taylor said.

Disclosing that the United States 9th Corps and the South Korean 2nd Corps bore the brunt of the first mass Communist attack on the night of July 13, Taylor said the Allied troops recovered "rapidly from the heavy blows struck by an estimated 10 enemy divisions—100,000 men.

"Commanders have regrouped their units and have pressed back to contact with the enemy in the first resumption of open warfare in nearly two years," Taylor said.

MARGARET SAID OVER 'CRUSH'

Royal Romance With Air Force Hero Allowed to Run Its Course

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UP)—Princess Margaret returned home from a tour of Africa today just about recovered, Buckingham Palace believes, from her infatuation for handsome Group Capt. Peter Townsend.

Townsend, 38-year-old divorced father of two children, already has removed himself from the scene. After nine years as royal equerry, he started a new career as air attache at the British embassy in Brussels Thursday.

If the Princess was unhappy about his absence, she gave no visible sign as she walked through a cheering crowd at London airport, smiling and waving.

Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh were waiting when the white and silver Comet jet airliner bringing Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth back from their Rhodesian visit touched down at the landing field.

While some 300 persons watched, the Princess waved eagerly from the window of the taxiing airliner to her sister. The Queen boarded the airliner to greet Margaret and her mother with a kiss.

ABOUT OVER

But while the romance is believed to be just about over, the controversy it stirred continued. Readers of the tabloid Daily Mirror endorsed by a vote of 30 to 1 the right of the 22-year-old Princess to marry Townsend if she really loves him.

The romantic wishes of the working class readers of The Mirror, however, had little effect on the romance itself.

During Margaret's tour of Southern Rhodesia with Queen Mother Elizabeth, her anxious family here kept in touch with her by telephone. They feel she now realizes marriage with a divorced man would be impossible for one in her position. Margaret is third in line to the Throne.

Margaret is expected to go to Scotland with the rest of the royal family about the first week in August.

Queen Elizabeth, the Duke of Edinburgh and other members of the royal family take a sensible view of the romance between the Princess and the war-hero pilot.

When it was realized several months ago that she was developing a "crush" on Townsend, nothing was said to her. The Royal Family believed the infatuation would run its course, that Townsend recognizing the difficulties of the situation would see to it that Margaret was not hurt.

The palace, however, did not count on the romance breaking into the open—"being caught in a newspaper circulation battle," as one palace source phrased it.

Reluctantly then, Magaret was told by her sister, the Queen, that she could never have royal consent to such a marriage.

Townsend was approached by a high member of the clergy acting for the Queen and the Queen Mother, sources revealed. During this discussion, Townsend was believed to have suggested a transfer to Brussels because of its proximity to London and his friends.

New German Strikes Bring Back Red Tanks

BERLIN (AP) — A Russian tank division rumbled back into East Berlin today as a dangerous new wave of anti-Communist strikes marked the first monthly anniversary of the June 17 workers' rebellion in East Germany.

The columns of Soviet tanks, troops and armored cars stamped and rumbled ostentatiously before dawn through Stalin Allee, a riot focus point a month ago. The Russians poured into East Berlin from the southeast, the east and the north.

Soviet martial law, proclaimed at the June 17 outbreak, was lifted in East Berlin only last Saturday night. The last of the 25,000 Russian armored troops who put down the rebellion withdrew at that time.

It could not be confirmed immediately whether the Soviet forces had also gone back into other East German cities where martial law ended last weekend.

At Merseburg, near Halle, a Soviet-owned buna synthetic rubber plant has been paralyzed since Wednesday by a sit-down strike of 14,000 workers demanding release of comrades jailed after the June 17 rebellion.

An anti-government slowdown has been under way at the Zeiss optical works at Jena since Tuesday. Zeiss employees walked out last Saturday but were forced back on the job Tuesday when the local Russian commander threatened to "shoot every 10th striker." The new Russian march into East Berlin apparently was intended to prevent such strikes from spreading to the east zone capital.

New Trade Agreements With Red Countries

MOSCOW (Reuters)—Russia and France have signed a trade and payment agreement, the Soviet news agency Tass announced today.

The agency published a joint communique by Russia and France which said both sides will deliver about $34,000,000 worth of goods in the first year of the pact.

It said the agreement grew out of a conference on East-West trade called in April by the United Nations economic commission for Europe at Geneva.

HONG KONG (UP) — The Communist New China News Ageny reported today that the unofficial British trade delegation signed contracts in Peiping for two-way trade totaling about $72,000,000.

The majority of the British delegation, which arrived in the capital of Communist China on June 19 and reached agreement with the state-owned import and export corporation on July 6, left Peiping on Tuesday for home, the agency said.

Alternative Vote Unlikely To Be Scrapped

Bennett Planning Election Reforms

By GORDON FORBES

Anticipated and possibly extensive amendments to the B.C. Election Act are not expected to scrap the alternative voting system, political observers here believe.

Amendments will be introduced at the special fall session of the Legislature, Premier W. A. C. Bennett said today.

Part of the revision will be to overcome difficulties which have shown up in recent recounts, and the rest may be in connection with the alternative voting system, he said.

He declined to elaborate on changes planned in alternative voting.

But one of the big revisions is expected to be drastic shortening of the three-week waiting period between election day and the day second and subsequent counting is started by the transfer of votes.

The premier has expressed dissatisfaction with this waiting period on several occasions.

Abductor B.C. Man

LINTON, N.D. (AP) — A North Dakota lawyer was retained by a Canadian law firm today to defend a Canadian soldier charged with kidnapping a 33-year-old expectant mother.

States attorney Robert Chesrowen filed the charge Thursday against Donald Blackwell Argyle, 31, of Nelson, B.C. and Regina. Bail was set at $25,000. Time of his appearance in district court has not been set.

Argyle is charged with kidnapping Mrs. Albert Geigle, Strasburg, N.D., late Wednesday after he hitchhiked a ride with her and two other women near Bismark. Mrs. Geigle is in hospital being treated for cuts. A physician who examined her said she had been assaulted.

T. E. George, Jamestown, N.D., lawyer, received a telegram today from Garland and Gansner, Nelson law firm, asking him to represent Argyle.

Husband Charged With Murder

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (CP) —A 20-year-old mother, Patricia Nelson, died of head injuries early today and her husband was charged with murder.

Police arrested George Nelson, 23, of St. Catharines shortly after his wife died in hospital here. They seized a crank from Nelson's car.

Police said Nelson turned up at the Lincoln county jail at 1 a.m. and talked with the turnkey. Officers were called and found Nelson's car parked in front of the jail.

Mrs. Nelson, bloody and unconscious, was sprawled on the front seat. She was taken to hospital with multiple head lacerations and a fractured skull and died without regaining consciousness.

Ballot Counting Gets Under Way

VANCOUVER (CP).—Counting of ballots on a conciliation board's unanimous wage award to West Coast woodworkers got under way Thursday night.

New Korean Protests May Hinder Truce

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—South Korean officials dealt two damaging blows to prospects for an early armistice today on the eve of a crucial truce conference at Panmunjom.

President Syngman Rhee was reported to have complained to Eighth Army commander Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor over the RoK army retreat from the Chinese before the Allies began their counterattack.

Rhee, according to Korean sources, said the RoKs had been "chewed up" because they had been held back in anticipation of an armistice.

Major Gen. Choi Duk Shin, South Korea's absentee truce delegate, indicated Rhee would never send another representative to the Panmunjom hut.

Choi, who boycotted the talks when the United Nations agreed to the armistice now awaiting signature, said he had "no plans" to return to Panmunjom.

"They (the Communists) don't want peace," Choi said. "They just want a temporary truce to benefit them."

The Communists have been stalling at Panmunjom on the ground that the U.N. has not given sufficient assurance it can control Rhee and his army following an armistice.

Gen. Mark W. Clark, who spent the night at the battlefront, went to Munsan earlier Friday and held a three-hour conference with his chief truce delegate, Lieut.-Gen. William K. Harrison.

They talked privately from 8.40 a.m. until 11.30 a.m. and then Clark returned to Tokyo by way of Seoul.

He was believed to have given Harrison final instructions on what to do when the truce talks are resumed tomorrow following a one-day recess called by the Communists.

Nationalists Take Red-Held Island On China Coast

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Chinese Nationalist guerrillas who stormed Tungshan Island off the China coast Thursday crushed resistance of "bandit troops," and occupied the principal city, then withdrew today, the defense ministry announced.

The operation, biggest Nationalist action since Chiang Kai-shek's forces quit the mainland in 1949, was described as a complete success.

The announcement said booty was taken but it made no mention of casualties.

Tungshan Island is a county of China's Fukien Province and is by far the most densely-populated island Nationalist guerrillas forces have hit so far.

CAPTURE TOWN 10 MILES FROM CHINA BORDER

5,000 French Paratroopers Make Daring Indo-China Raid

BY LARRY ALLEN

LANG SON, Indo-China (AP) —French Union paratroopers today captured Lang Son, within 10 miles of the Communist Chinese frontier, in the boldest raid of the seven-year-old war against the Vietminh. They succeeded in wrecking the chief supply centre for all war equipment supplied to the Vietminh by Red China.

A military spokesman said that while the troops were not expected to occupy Lang Son for long, the attack proved the French had abandoned defensive tactics and were changing over to the offensive.

Five thousand paratroopers were dropped from U.S.-supplied bombers and transport planes in the lightning raid in the enemy's backyard. They quickly took over control of Lang Son, which had been in the hands of the Red-led Vietminh for three years.

The attack caught the enemy at breakfast. The paratroopers swiftly routed scattered resistance after fighter planes and bombers silenced a group of Vietminh anti-aircraft batteries.

Apparently the three solid weeks of air attack by French fighters and bombers had caused dispersal of most of the enemy's heavy forces into smaller units.

The sky troops lost no time in completing the partial job of destruction done in air assaults. They blew up huge stores of war supplies and ammunition. They dynamited bridges and temporary spans over the Ky Cua River linking Lang Son with Kwangsi Province in China. Military installations were levelled.

Bombers ripped fresh gaps in all roads leading into China over which the Vietminh had been receiving an estimated 3,000 tons of war equipment a month.

Lang Son, on the traditional invasion route from China, long was a key French post in the north. Most of the time after the war was resumed in 1946, the French had to supply it from Hanoi by air or by heavily-guarded convoy from the coast.

The French abandoned the post in October, 1950, after losing a series of posts along the border and in the mountainous north. The Vietminh at once took the place over and made it the chief entry depot for their supplies from China.

GENERAL ASKS INDO-CHINA INDEPENDENCE

HANOI (AP) — Freedom-seeking, anti-Communist Indo-Chinese drew powerful support today from France's top military man in the Far East. Only by giving Indo-China complete independence, Gen. Pierre Navarre asserted, could France win her seven-year war against the Red-directed Vietminh forces.

Laing Claims Bennett Warned Off Hustings

Liberal Maintains Campaign Job Left to Secondary Speakers

Premier W. A. C Bennett has been told by "certain sources in B.C." to keep out of the federal election campaign and "mind the people's business," Liberal leader Arthur Laing said at a View Royal meeting Thursday night.

Mr. Laing charged that Premier Bennett has suddenly altered his plans to enter actively into the federal campaign because of advice from certain quarters. He didn't reveal names of the advisers.

"The job of exploding Liberalism and expounding Social Credit theories is being left to such secondary characters as Health Minister Eric Martin," stated the Liberal leader.

Mr. Laing explained the "remarkable turnover in Premier Bennett's attitude."

He said the premier first announced he planned to play a large role in the federal campaign, but this week announced he will make only a few speeches and his participation will be limited.

Mr. Laing was speaking in support of Esquimalt-Saanich candidate Duncan MacBride. Thirty persons attended the meeting.

The Liberal Leader also claimed Premier Bennett is holding off a by-election for Finance Minister Einar Gunderson "because he doesn't want him all stuck up with the funny-money fly paper" of the federal campaign.

Socreds, he continued, boast that Mr. Gunderson is an orthodox finance man and they want to preserve that aura.

He referred specifically to Mr. Martin's statement that an economic crash is coming, and Social Credit monetary theories are the solution to the problem.

Early By-Election Test Desirable

"With Mr. Gunderson being the orthodox finance man he claims he is, it's in the interest of B.C. that this matter of funny money be cleared up now," Mr. Laing said.

He contended a by-election could be held in the near future instead of waiting several months.

Social Credit monetary policies, he said, would destroy business in Canada, wipe out everybody's savings and bring "utter ruin" to social services.

"It would be a crashing finale," he stated.

British Columbians, he said, have a right to know how Premier Bennett stands provincially and federally.

Mr. Laing also turned his guns on Attorney-General Robert Bonner for stating that Ottawa gets $262,000,000 revenue from B.C. but only gives back $40,000,000.

"Why should a man of Mr. Bonner's intelligence try and sell that stuff to the people of B.C.?

Big Federal Payments Overlooked

"Mr. Bonner wants to forget that the federal government, in addition to that $40,000,000 from the tax rental agreement, also pays into B.C. $36,000,000 for old-age pensions, $25,500,000 for family allowances, $18,000,000 for war veterans' allowances, $15,000,000 for disability pensions and $10,000,000 under the veterans' charter," said Mr. Laing.

He deplored the fact B.C. Socred leaders are trying to sell "disunity and suspicion" by making such inaccurate statements about Ottawa's treatment of the provinces.

Candidate MacBride told the meeting the Liberal government has reduced taxes every year but two since the end of the Second World War. The Korean war, and formation of NATO, prevented cuts in 1950 and 1951, he said.

A Liberal government, he said, has raised Canada's trade to the highest level in history.

"Surely this is proof of good government and good management," he said.

Bert Hebden, president of the Victoria Liberal Association, said during the whole of this century, with the exception of two periods, a Liberal government has contributed greatly to Canada's greatness.

Liberals have been dedicated to the task of building a great nation — "great within its own bounds and in the affairs of the world."

"I think it must be admitted that their objective has been attained to a large degree," he said.

TWO CABINET MEMBERS TO SPEAK HERE

Two federal cabinet ministers will visit Victoria this month in connection with the Liberals campaign for re-election Aug. 10.

Associate Defense Minister Ralph Campney will be here Monday to speak at the first campaign meeting of Dr. F. T. Fairey, party candidate in Victoria.

The two will appear at a meeting in the lower Crystal ballroom at 8 p.m.

Toward the end of the month Trade Minister C. D. Howe will be here to make a campaign speech.

Drill Team Celebrates Anniversary

Members of the Victoria Girls' Drill Team celebrated their 15th anniversary Thursday evening at a banquet and dance at the Club Sirocco. Geoffrey I. Edgelow, chairman of the drill team committee, introduced special guests and proposed the toast to the Queen.

Short speeches were given by Mayor Claude Harrison; Mrs. Nancy Hodges, honorary colonel of the drill team; E. G. Rowebottom, deputy minister of trade and industry; George I. Warren, Victoria Publicity Bureau; and Capt. Norman Foster of the drill team. A telegram was received from the team's first member, Flossie Hughes, Parksville.

Capt. Foster brought to the attention of the guests the length of service of three senior officers, Mrs. Myrtle Okell, Miss Pat Smith and Miss Kathie Willard. He also told of the team's first practice and what advance has been made since 1938. Special mention was made of Mrs. Foster, who has assisted Capt. Foster with uniforms and as chaperone on the many out-of-town displays.

Process Raw Materials Says Pearkes

Processing of Canada's natural resources in this country was advocated by Maj.-Gen. G. R. Pearkes, VC, addressing a Progressive-Conservative meeting on James Island Thursday evening.

"To have proper development of the country our natural resources must be processed as much as possible in this country, in order to provide maximum employment," he said.

He condemned waste and extravagance in government thinking, and said that B.C. is not getting its proper share of defense contracts. "A recent statement of the Vancouver Board of Trade points out that of all defense spending only 2 per cent of the orders were placed in B.C.," he said.

Labor-Progressive Candidate Calls For Trade Effort

"Unemployed shipyard workers in Victoria are more interested in getting back to work than in union raiding or red hunts," Tom Seibert, Labor-Progressive candidate in Victoria, told an election meeting in the Williams Building Thursday.

Seibert urged wider trade with Commonwealth and Asiatic countries, to be carried by Canadian ships in order to restore the shipbuilding industry to peak production.

"If we traded with China, Victoria yards could look forward to another order for China coasters like those built here at the end of the Second World War," he said.

Socred Says Liberals Forfeit All Resources

The policy of the Liberal party is to forfeit every resource of the country, Socred MLA-elect John Tisdalle said at a Royal Oak meeting Thursday night.

"Every child born in this country is in debt hundreds of dollars with the first breath it draws," Mr. Tisdalle told his audience of 25 persons.

The way to bigger and better mortgages is to vote Liberal, he said.

"This system of Liberalism is obsolete and in need of discarding," Mr. Tisdalle said.

Esquimalt-Saanich candidate James Roberts said there is nothing mysterious about Social Credit philosophies. Sound business principles stand behind them, he said.

Victoria MLA-elect W. N. Chant said the CCF is trying to drag socialism into B.C. by the front door and the Liberals are dragging it by the back door.

"Socialism and communism are the end results of Liberal and Conservative policies over centuries.," he said.

Canucks Stop Chinese Attack

81st Field Artillery Regiment Halts Reds 3 Successive Nights

By BILL BOSS

IN KOREA (CP)—The 81st Field Artillery Regiment of the Royal Canadian Artillery was credited Thursday with breaking up a Chinese attack in battalion strength on the western sector of the Korean front Wednesday night.

The attack came on Outpost Betty held by the 1st Republic of Korea Division.

It was the third successive night that the gunners have frustrated Chinese attacks. Thursday's eighth army communique said the artillery fire using the proximity fuse which explodes at a set distance from the object broke the attack.

Monday night the Chinese assaulted with two companies and accomplished a partial success. But by Tuesday morning, after the gunners had poured 15 times their normal rate of fire on the position, the Chinese vacated it, leaving 45 dead and suffering many wounded.

That night the gunners were directed by Maj. Yvon Theriault of Quebec City.

The Chinese repeated the assault Tuesday night when the fire was directed by Lieut. Beverly McKinnon of Moncton, N.B., who frustrated not only that night's but also Wednesday night's attempts.

REGAIN INITIATIVE

Tuesday the 1st RoKs regained the initiative and tried with the 81st's support to knock the Chinese off Betty's forward slope, on which the Communists gained a toehold Wednesday night.

"There's a forward RoK platoon," he said, "which was never driven off despite three desperate Chinese attacks. Eventually they went to ground and called artillery fire on top of their heads."

So integrated is the co-operation that the Koreans had only to point out a feature on the ground or map to bring the regiment's entire fire on it.

Everest Heroes Receive Awards From Elizabeth

LONDON (CP)—The Queen decorated members of Britain's successful Mount Everest expedition Thursday night in what was the highlight of a huge presentation and garden party at Buckingham Palace.

In a ceremony performed in a palace reception room, the Queen conferred knighthoods on Col. John Hunt, leader of the expedition and Edmund Hillary, the lanky New Zealand beekeeper who reached the top of the world's highest mountain.

Tenzing, the Nepalese guide who reached the top with Hillary, was invested with the George Medal, Britain's highest award for civilian heroism.

Timins Miners Drive Through Picket Lines

TIMMINS, Ont. (CP).—Forty hardrock workers, led by two company officials, drove cars through picket lines around Broulan Reef gold mines today to restart operations after a six-day walkout over wages and hours.

The move came 15 hours after an injunction was served against the United Steelworkers of America CIO-CCL restricting its members from picketing the Broulan property.

The 40 miners were carried through the picket lines, set up by striking workers at the adjacent Hallnor gold mines Thursday night, in 10 cars. They were led by Broulan president B. W. Lang of Toronto.

The workers, carrying placards declaring "No Strike at Broulan," passed through the lines without incident. There were about 275 striking miners at the gates.

The union declined to comment on today's incident. Mr. Lang said only that he expected to have all Broulan men "back to work by tomorrow."

PARIS (UP)—Adlai E. Stevenson said today that "McCarthyism" has become a "rather serious danger" in the United States.

Stevenson is making a world tour to observe political and economic conditions. He made his statement in French to newsmen last night.

ST. LAURENT SAYS

Tory Tax Plan Might Hit Bonds

SUDBURY (CP)—Prime Minister St. Laurent suggested Thursday night that Canadian bonds may drop in value under a Progressive Conservative government if the party believed in cutting taxes by deficit financing.

"Perhaps the Tories believe in deficit budgetting and in increasing the national debt," Mr. St. Laurent said in referring to the Progressive Conservative promise to reduce taxes by $500,000,000 a year if elected Aug. 10.

"If they do, the millions of Canadians who hold Victory Bonds and Canada Saving Bonds are not very likely to look on them with much favor," he added in a speech prepared for delivery before a Liberal rally in this world nickel centre.

With him on the platform were External Affairs Minister Pearson and other Liberal candidates in this area.

DREW CHANGES PLANS

After waiting nearly five hours at Sydney, N.S., for the mist to lift at the St. John's airport, Conservative leader George Drew cancelled his Newfoundland tour and his plane was diverted to Halifax. Mr. Drew is scheduled to speak today at Bridgewater, N.S.

In a recorded, free-time political broadcast from Edmonmonton over a CBC network, Solon Low, Social Credit leader, accused the Liberal government of ignoring democratic processes and regarding parliament as a "nuisance."

The greatest danger to democracy, he said, is the political machine. It forced some members of Parliament to vote in direct opposition to the known wishes of their constituents.

He said the Liberals are ridiculing the Social Credit party because the Liberals are "bankrupt," without a policy to lay before the Canadian people.

HITS STEEL INDUSTRY

M. J. Coldwell, CCF leader, speaking in the steel city of Sydney, N.S., went after Canada's steel industry for the second straight night. He claimed the industry is looking after its shareholders instead of expanding to meet the country's steel needs.

Again advocating nationalization of the steel industry, he said it could be integrated with the national economy. Between 1939 and 1948, the industry had received $40,589,000 in government subsidies, made no appreciable expansion, but had returned nearly $60,000,000 in profits.

"The profit motive continues to dictate the size of the industry, thereby preventing it from meeting Canada's industrial needs. Instead, we import iron and steel from the United States, contributing to our adverse trade balance with that country."

Punched By Driver

Pleading guilty to a charge of assaulting a man directing traffic at the Tillicum Outdoor Theatre on the night of June 20, Lee Allan, Box 4685 Blenkinsop, was fined $20 in Saanich police court Thursday afternoon.

Dennis Huber, 1528 Elford, traffic attendant at the theatre, told the court he directed accused to go out a certain gate rather than cut across a double stream of traffic. Whereupon, Huber said, Allen got out of his car and struck him. Huber said he was knocked down by a blow to the chin.

No Betrayal in Korea

MR. RHEE AND SOME AMERICANS believe that the present truce plan is a betrayal of Korea and a repudiation of the United Nations' promises. This view is supported by the speeches of some American politicians during the last two years. It is not supported by the decisions of the United Nations.

In October, 1950, the United Nations laid down its objectives by recommending that "all appropriate steps be taken to insure conditions of stability throughout Korea" and that "all constituent acts be taken, including the holding of elections, under the auspices of the United Nations for the establishment of a unified, independent and democratic government in the sovereign state of Korea.

The United Nations continued to defend South Korea from aggression, it sought to unify the whole country but it never agreed to compel unification by force. At one point, it is true, the United Nations' armies drove into North Korea toward the Yalu River, after General MacArthur assured President Truman that this adventure could be completed without any danger of Chinese intervention. But once the Chinese intervened—as they had threatened to do—it was clear that Korea could not be unified by force short of a general war with China and probably a world war. The United Nations' forces were soon driven back to the boundary of South Korea and have remained approximately there ever since.

In June, 1951, Mr. Acheson, then Secretary of State, was asked by a congressional committee if the United Nations was committed to the use of force to join the two Koreas. He replied that a "unified, free and democratic Korea" was "still our purpose and is still the purpose of the United Nations" but "I do not understand it to be a war aim; in other words, that it is not sought to be achieved by fighting, but it is sought to be achieved by peaceful means, just as was being attempted before this aggression."

On that basis the United Nations have tried to conclude a truce which will free South Korea, leaving the North under Communist control, in the hope that some day, by peaceful agreement, the two segments will be joined. That hope, admittedly, is remote. The full objectives of the United Nations are not likely to be achieved until there is a basic settlement between the western and Communist worlds.

Those American politicians of the MacArthur school who were ready to risk a war which would have ruined not only Korea but the whole world are saying now that nothing has been gained by three years of fighting and cruel casualties. Korea, they say, is back where it was before the war began.

Korea is not where it was. In June, 1950, South Korea lay powerless before the Communists of the North who proposed to engorge it at leisure. Now its independence has been won and is guaranteed by the United Nations. More important, the world is not where it was. For the first time in human history collective security has repelled an act of aggression and drawn a clear line against the expansion of the Russian empire.

The stand of the United Nations there has compelled a complete revision of Russian policy and is the real reason for Russia's present offer to bargain with the West. If the free world had not stood firm in Korea all of eastern Asia undoubtedly would have fallen to communism by this time and Russian aggression, successful and unchallenged, would have lunged in other directions as well.

If the United Nations has not achieved its ultimate objectives of unification in Korea—as they could not without producing a much larger war—they will have demonstrated, if a truce is completed, that aggression anywhere will be repelled by united force. No aggressor will lightly run that risk again. The Korean war, for all its mistakes, may well turn out to be in retrospect the great watershed of human affairs in this era.

Let's Have the Facts

THE CASE OF THE TWO SUSpended civil servants, Messrs. D. A. C. Smith and A. B. Crowe, takes on an increasingly serious and ugly look. But without all the facts the public cannot judge it.

Some Social Credit party members in Oak Bay, putting their sense of justice ahead of their political ambitions and their own peace of mind, have made two grave charges.

First, that while the two civil servants were suspended for accepting an altered government tender, in fact there was no tender, only a price quotation of a sort often altered in the course of ordinary routine; and second, that public announcement of the suspensions was withheld until after the provincial election lest it damage the government—a charge which Mr. Gunderson denies by saying that "when the matter came up just prior to the election the majority of the cabinet was absent."

Thus the whole affair bristles with rumor and innuendo and while the Oak Bay rebels intend to publish a full statement on their secret conversations with the government this will not settle the questions already raised. Only a full and public investigation can settle them.

The government, if it has nothing to hide, should welcome such an investigation by a committee of the legislature. And if, as is rumored, the government is dissatisfied with the whole system of departmental purchasing, the legislature is the proper place to discuss it fully.

The Busy General

GENERAL PEARKES, VC, ONE supposes, is a very busy man these days. Too busy, apparently, to read the statistics of federal government finance, or even the newspapers. For he is still going about among the voters denouncing the government for piling up a revenue surplus of something over three hundred million dollars in the last year and thus "over-taxing the people."

He thus ignores the official figures which show, according to Mr. Abbott, that the surplus in fact was about $24 millions which, in a budget of over four billions, is really no surplus at all. Indeed, if account is taken of a heavy deficit in the old age pension system it can be argued that the government actually suffered an over-all deficit in the last fiscal year.

General Pearkes, we feel sure, is too honest a man to misrepresent figures deliberately. It can only be assumed that he misrepresents them out of ignorance. For this there is no excuse when the facts are on the public record.

A member of the last Parliament who undertakes to analyze and condemn the government's fiscal policies in every speech should know at least within a few hundred millions how much money the government is collecting and spending.

Perhaps these massive factual errors are not so surprising after all in a Conservative party which proposes in one breath to reduce expenditures and taxes by half a billion and, in the next, undertakes to increase them by much larger amounts.

The Not-So-Abominable Snowman

WITH THE COMMON FEELing of pride that we all have shared because two members of our species have conquered nature's fortress of Everest will have come, to the more philosophical, another thought. That is a feeling of relief, perhaps of thankfulness, that the famed mountain has not yielded up its final mystery. There remains, for instance, the matter of the abominable snowman.

Numerous "facts" have been related about this creature which is said to frequent the snowy slopes of the world's greatest massif. He is large, he will attack men, he is covered with yellow hair which grows downward below the waist and upward above it, his face is bare, his head is pointed, and, crowning detail, his feet are on backward.

A number of persons claim to have seen the huge "yeti". But though his tracks have been photographed, the creature has yet to be seen in the flesh—if such he inhabits—by observers of scientific standing.

This, for a while, will be all to the good. Let us enjoy, if only briefly, a few romantic illusions about this semi-mystical denizen of the snows, abominable or otherwise, before he becomes merely another Latin name in the zoological books, catalogued, defined and drained of fancy.

Every Everest has its abominable snowman; every great human achievement has its little epilogue of continuing mystery to whet further appetites and postpone the eventual decay of a race of humans who will have discovered all, known all and no longer have health in them. Let us therefore at all costs preserve the yeti, penetrate his secret only bit by bit, and thereby prolong our own survival. For with the surrender of the last yeti will die also the last spark of human curiosity—that quality which alone of all earth's stimuli has most encouraged our evolution, but which paradoxically may, indeed, also cause our downfall.

Four-Ring Circus

Chips

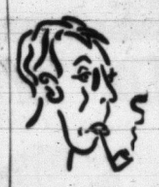
BY DAVID BROCK

THERE stands before me the picture of 32 six-year-olds (or maybe some of them five-year-olds) who graduated a couple of weeks ago from playschool . . . or, as it used to be called, kindergarten. Both words have been ever so slightly unsatisfactory. How about Academy of Advanced Pre-School Studies? You think that's either cute or pompous? Certainly. It is meant to be both. For let me tell you about the picture. Each child wears a short white gown, which is meant to signify an academic robe. Each robe is tied at the neck with a horrible black bow-tie. And on each child's head is a black mortarboard. Academic dress.



Brock

THIS may be common practice in advanced pre-social academic circles, but it was a new one on me. And as I was unused to the germ and so hadn't built up an immunity, I got very sick. For a time I felt like rushing violently down the slope into the sea and drowning myself, like the Gadarene swine. But it's all right, I'm better now. I am now prepared to study any form of cuteness known to the heretics who claim to be the only true disciples of Dr. Maria Montessori.

As the song of 1926 or so had it, "What can I say, dear, after I'm Montessori?"

BY the way, before you start telling me what the Montessori Method in kindergartens is, let me tell you something in return. On graduating from Rome as its first woman MD, at the age of 25, she went at once to an asylum where she handled defective or feeble-minded children. The method she developed here she then applied to perfectly normal children.

Now, I can detect a fallacy in this. It may be not so much of a fallacy as I assume it is, but it's still either amusing or annoying to think that what suits a poor little defective will also suit a normal kid or a superkid. And if the system works on your own kid, what awful doubts will steal into your mind! Perhaps he isn't any too bright.

AS you know, the system (unfairly simplified here, to avoid filling this entire edition) insists on spontaneity (whatever that is, except among a few geniuses like Mozart and Raphael); on freedom from "artificial" restraint (whatever that it); and freedom from rigid discipline based on conventional rules. Well, blow me down, if a so-called "liberal" playschool felt it was asking my kid to be spontaneous while clapping a mortarboard and gown on his head, I'd be more than Montessori to hear that.

And as for the artificial restraint of a white gown and the rigid discipline of a black bow tie . . . no, ma'am, my kid can tell you first-hand. And if one child turns up at school in different clothes, graduate in a bathing suit if he feels that expresses himself best. Or stark naked except for finger-paints.

NOT that kids aren't painfully conventional. They blush to see their father in shorts, as I can tell you first-hand. And if one child turns up at school in different clothes, he is pecked to death by the rest of the flock. So it is really rather a waste to try Montessori or any other freedom on him. He'd not know what to do with the stuff. And if he did, he'd be scared to try. Is this a tribal memory from the stately days when you were kicked out of society for not looking like everyone else, and when a man had to turn down a dinner invitation on his travels if he hadn't brought his evening clothes?

I HAVE always been very fond of color in male dress. I am not referring to Hawaiian shirts, even when made in a Brooklyn sweatshop . . . or a Montreal one, for that matter. And if the right to wear the colorful garb has been earned, then so much the better, for it appeals to more than one emotion, including that of envy. The only reason I want to become a Doctor of Music of either Oxford or Cambridge is that it would enable me to wear a fantastic but beautiful white robe covered with myriads of embroidered flowers. (Gorgeous George should try to study his music. At present he is just something out of a suburban boudoir.)

BUT since academic robes are outside common experience anyhow (except in kindergartens, you understand), and since the sky is the limit, why are so many of them plain black? To save laundry bills? I can hardly think so . . . professors and students don't mind wearing light flannel trousers showing grass stains, ink, soup, chalk, mud, soot, beer, ashes, and so on. Whatever the reason, the average formal occasion at a university resembles nothing so much as a gang of crows about to attend a caucus.

BLACK gowns are kids' stuff. Kindergarten stuff, you might say. It is true that I have two very handsome and striking Japanese garments, both black (and one of them pinched by my wife). But one of them is lined with pale mushroom, and the outside is gay with little square patterns dyed by what I am told is the "tie" method, and there is a belt to relieve things too. And the other is lined with gold brocade, and on the outside are chaste white flowers (just two), and it is fastened with a gold cord. No hint of the BA there at all. Or even of the playschool.

As Our Readers See It

'NO, NOT ONE'

In pressing the defense of the strange fabulist, the now deceased Major Douglas, and his decaying monetary theories, some of his more daring dupes will try to leave with the innocents the impression that "outstanding authorities around the world" have placed their stamp of approval upon the ridiculous, funny money plans of the so-called Social Credit enterprise.

Let me assure our audience, Sir, that after watching and reading everything that could possibly be resolved into rational thinking, about this silly thing called Social Credit, during the past 30 years, not once have I noticed anywhere the slightest sanction or approval given to it, or its fantastic inventor, by even one reputable fiscal analyst and much less by any "outstanding authority" on money matters anywhere in the world.

Not even one notably intelligent person can be found among its promoters.

It would be most entertaining to discover just whom those "outstanding authorities" might turn out to be, apart of course from the departed razzle-dazzle Billy Aberhart, the Rev. Ernie Manning and our own fairly bright, but not outstanding, Prime Minister of B.C.

DOESN'T TRUST DEMOCRACY

It was my privilege to hear from the leaders of the two old political parties their reasons why the party they led should have handed to them the reins of government in the coming election. This is old stuff and can be found at all times in the press. My attention was more or less concentrated on the terrific expense they incurred in their campaign.

Who footed the bill? Is there some kind of trust company which guarantees pre-election expenses upon payment of an annual premium? Is it an expenditure paid by the individual candidate, from his own private funds, or is it a few contributions from very dear friends who love the candidates with a fraternal love, or is it a very private contribution from business enterprises or corporations, who believe in casting their bread upon the waters, knowing they shall find it again after many days? May be!

Should this last be the source that's tapped, in what way is it repaid? Is it in concessions the government alone can give? If so, do these creditors have any influence in the decisions of the government that would prove their help was not forgotten? Such things are not unheard of, but are these repayments for the benefit of the ratepayers or only of the contributors?

If the latter be true, then who or what rules the country? Is it the electors, who by their votes put the government into office, or is it those who financed the election? No mature person should have far to seek for an answer.

CORONATION

In arrogating to himself the role of critic of the coronation ceremony Mr. Philip Holloway has crowned himself King Colossus of Presumption. He says in part—"It was far too gloomy in facial action, and would have attained more American admiration and genuine esteem" had such and such been done. "Keeping England's prime minister in a silent compartment was all wrong."

Sir Winston, with all due respect to his eminence, was just another of the thousands of important personages comprising the congregation.

The coronation was a spectacle impossible of duplication by Hollywood either in splendor, magnitude or dignity. It was not staged to pander to American admiration and esteem. In reality all the pomp and circumstance was secondary to the spiritual significance and solemnity of the occasion. This the authorities were at some pains to emphasize, and to the Duke of Norfolk and his army of assistants, guided by protocol fitting to the rite, go the credit of gracing the ceremony with becoming dignity combined with magnificence unsurpassed in history.

The coronation of a British sovereign is something unlike any other event in the world. The Crown is not the gift of the people, as he states. No other throne on earth holds the holy tradition and significance that the British Crown symbolises.

The most searching investigations reveal that it is a divinely instituted ritual, having its origin in the Davidic Throne of the Scriptures, a heritage that should command the utmost respect and loyalty of all Britishers. This is the real lesson of the coronation, a fact all too little known.

BORN AGAIN

Again I must express my regret that you cut out the most important part of my answer of the 10th instant to "Swedenborgian's" statement that no one can claim to be a born-again Christian!

The Lord Jesus Christ, in the 3rd chapter of John's Gospel, in speaking to Nicodemus, says: Verily, verily, I say unto thee, except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God—marvel not that I said unto you, ye must be born again."

It would be an assumption indeed not to believe the fact of the new birth by anyone who believeth in Christ as his Saviour!

LET GEORGE DO IT

Booming guns of the Progressive Conservative candidates for the ridings of Saanich-Esquimalt and Victoria are being fired by candidates General George Pearkes, VC., and James George, both excellently accredited gentlemen.

General Pearkes, whose prestige and integrity as a brilliant soldier and long-term federal M.P., is too well known to need any introduction. Mr. George, also an active service soldier, has demonstrated his ability as a political organizer, and his vocation as an investment counsel should be a sufficient guarantee of his shrewd business acumen to recommend his candidature to any voter who has the best interests of our great Dominion at heart.

Both these gentlemen contend that the Liberal government has practiced gangster methods of robbing the people by arrogantly appropriating some of our most valuable lands while presumptuously exercising the specious "divine right of kings" by refusing to pay taxes. They therefore put it to the taxpayer, as a sound business principle, that the government should pay taxes which they have wrongfully withheld for nigh 40 years.

As a matter of common horse sense it is incumbent upon every voter, irrespective of party preferences, to thoroughly investigate their claims and give them a sporting chance to make good their boast. Here Esquimaltians have everything to win and nothing to lose. For the people's good let the two Georges show us how it can be done.

Not Reading Is Dangerous

Financial Post

THE story is out at last.

The story is that President Eisenhower doesn't read—doesn't read enough of the right sort of stuff to know what is going on. He's good on golf, fishing and tales of western adventure, but his aides are having a dreadful time with his disinterest in the current news.

This has been politely overlooked by the overwhelmingly Republic press of the United States. But this week it was revealed by two responsible U.S. columnists.

There will be few people in the U.S. or in the western world who haven't heard about Senator McCarthy's purge of books in American overseas libraries. The "book burning" is the tag by which most readers will recognize the affair.

Well, Ike hadn't heard about it. He was up to Dartmouth College to make a speech. Canada's Pearson and McCloy, former U.S. high commissioner to Germany, were there too. During a lull in commencement proceedings McCloy and Pearson casually began talking about the "book burning" business.

Overhearing the conversation, Eisenhower wanted to know more of what they were talking about. When he learned the whole story (which every publication in the country had been writing about for weeks) President Ike made the now famous extemporaneous insert in his speech flaying the book-burners and, by implication, blasting McCarthyism.

It was, of course, interesting that the President backed down a few hours later and said he had no intention of hitting McCarthy.

There is one interesting point. The man Eisenhower has good instincts, but the president Eisenhower is mightily concerned with keeping things sweet and compatible in the Republican party.

The other point — that Eisenhower doesn't read—is alarming. No army of assistants can be a satisfactory substitute for the information and insight that comes from regular, well-chosen reading about public affairs.

The main reason the Dartmouth incident got attention was that it confirmed what many writers had been suspecting for months. To those who attend Eisenhower's conferences, it has been obvious that he often didn't know what was going on.

Soldiers probably don't need to read current affairs. Presidents do.

The Theft of Thunder

The Times (London)

IT WAS, when we come to think of it, in the nursery that we first had our thunder stolen. "He's such a funny boy," they used to say, talking over our head to another grown-up in a painstakingly offhand voice. "He thinks spinach is bad for him."

"Well, I never!" their accomplice would reply, pretending to be surprised but not fooling us for a moment. "Fancy thinking that spinach is bad for you!"

As we sat there, scowling malignantly at the dark green, horrible tumulus upon our plate, we were aware that a march had been stolen on us. Our theory about the injurious effects of spinach upon the constitution, though not yet formulated in any great detail, had been held with unflinching consistency ever since it first occurred to us three days ago.

But it was no good restating our thesis now. They had stolen our thunder.

Similar experiences were destined to recur in riper years. "Before inviting you, Smith, to construe the next passage," the master was apt to say, "it is only fair to warn you that I am not prepared to accept as an excuse for your failure to prepare it the fact that, thanks to an act of singular magnanimity on the part of the head master, you were privileged to spend the greater part of yesterday watching the test match."

And so it went on. Debutantes and dons, commanding officers and managing directors, occasionally even justices of the peace—they all seemed to have the knack of taking our strongest arguments, our most plausible excuses, out of our mouths before we had had time to utter them and thus rendering them invalid and sometimes ridiculous.

Ladies are particularly adept in the use of this gambit. "Of course, Henry" (his wife will tell you, speaking with a curious mixture of wistfulness and criticism) "doesn't believe in that sort of thing at all. He thinks I'm an idiot to have anything to do with it. He says ——" And at the other end of the table Henry, scowling moodily at his plate, listens impotently to his thunder being stolen. Of what is it that in that instant he reminds us? Can it be spinach?

NO ANTI-CLIMAX

I wrote the concluding chapters five times and each time I was dissatisfied. I think I tried to say too much in the finish, but eventually I took the bull by the horns and wrote the briefest of the five endings and it was the best. It taught me one lesson for the future—once you have reached the climax of a book, chop its tail off.

FROM INDIANAPOLIS — By WADE JONES

Dr. Kinsey and the Ladies

ON AUG. 20 will occur a curious something which promises to make Indiana for a time the most publicized state in the U.S.

Before that eventful date it may be well to review some of the Hoosier state's historic claims to fame, lest they be lost in the frantic August shuffle. Also, a few facts will have a steadying influence on us all during the hectic days to come when all sorts of wild words are going to get flung around, and cool heads will be at a premium.

One of the more steadying facts about Indiana is that it leads all the other states in the production of peppermint and spearmint oils.

It lays proud claim also to the Notre Dame football team, Booth Tarkington, Theodore Dreiser, James Whitcomb Riley, Gene Stratton-Porter, and the Indianapolis Speedway.

It's a versatile little old state, as states go. It ranks tenth in farm income, third in steel production, has the third biggest natural cave in the country, and can't issue bonds but must pay as it goes. At Santa Claus, Ind., is the post office beloved of stamp collectors.

That's Indiana, safe and solid home of the Hoosier, and not at all the kind of a place where you'd expect to have happen what is going to happen come Aug. 20.

On that date will occur a deceptively mild incident consisting entirely of the release of advance publicity on a book that is to be published the following month. But what a book! What publicity!

The book will be called, "Sexual Behavior in the Human Female," by Alfred C. Kinsey of Indiana University, at Bloomington. He did a similar book on men a few years ago, you'll remember.

It's taken the good doctor 15 years to do his book on women, six years longer than he took on the book about men. Why? Did the women clam up or did they bend the doctor's ear so much he couldn't get away?

Whatever it was, the 15 years of working with women finally laid him low. Only a few days ago some other doctor told Dr. Kinsey he would have to go to bed and rest. Exhaustion.

Already womenfolk around the country are on the defensive about Dr. Kinsey's forthcoming revelations. Already they're referring to the book, before they've ever seen it, as an "attack."

In the making, meantime, is one of the biggest publicity build-ups given a book in recent years. Maybe ever. Magazine and news writers are being taken on guide tours of the Kinsey laboratory at Bloomington. Behind double-barred windows, they are given peeks at the book's explosive proof sheets. And then they are sworn to secrecy until Aug. 20. Some national magazines have switched their publication dates to come out on that day.

All this secrecy business seems to stem from the fact that Dr. Kinsey has gotten wind that a couple of other books have been prepared with blanks left for statistics gotten at the last minute from the Kinsey book, and that their publishers will try to beat him to the bookstalls.

The first Kinsey book sold 250,000 copies with comparatively little advance publicity build-up, and on a tame subject like men. Still it kicked up a heck of a fuss.

But just wait till the lowdown on the ladies comes out. The collective roar of affronted American womanhood can probably be recorded on a seismograph in the Malay Archipelago.

Is This the Showdown?

THE fall of Lavrenti Beria may shake the world; but American domestic politics are rather more likely to be shaken by a quite different event. President Eisenhower has at last opened hostilities against Senator Joseph R. McCarthy.

Stewart

The decisive engagement will be the case of William Bundy, the able official of the Central Intelligence Agency who is McCarthy's newest target. The President shows every sign of the firmest purpose to oppose McCarthy on Bundy, even refusing to permit Bundy to respond to McCarthy's subpoena.

If Eisenhower does not surrender in this Bundy case, McCarthy will have a hard choice. He will have to choose between accepting public defeat, or unmasking his real purposes by publicly attacking the President himself. This can be, and may well be, the final turning point.

The real opening of hostilities, however, was the President's incisive statement denouncing the slander of the Protestant clergy by McCarthy's pet investigator, J. B. Matthews. The real interest of this statement lies in a vital background fact. The White House actively sought the opportunity, indeed created the opportunity, to strike this hard blow at the Wisconsin Senator.

It is an old story, now, how Matthews charged that 7,000 Protestant clergymen were secret agents of Moscow, and how the members of McCarthy's committee therefore protested Matthews' appointment as head of the committee staff. But how the White House seized upon the Matthews issue is not an old story.

The President's chief of staff, former Governor Sherman Adams of New Hampshire, was the man who decided that Matthews offered the long-awaited "really good issue" on which the President could take his stand against McCarthy.

Inevitably, Adams was opposed by the President's amiable but appeasement-minded legislative liaison officer, Major General Wilton B. Persons. But the President, who has followed the advice of Persons, this time decided the matter in favor of Adams. It is understood that Vice-President Richard Nixon also gave his approval.

Rather cleverly, the White House then took steps to stimulate a telegram denouncing Matthews from three leaders of the Catholic, Protestant and Jewish faiths, Monsognor John A. O'Brien, the Rev. John Sutherland Bonnell and Rabbi Maurice Eisendrath. This was to give the President a reason to speak.

Before the planned answer to the invited telegram could be published, the Vice-President hurriedly warned that Matthews was to be dropped by McCarthy. The only White House reaction was to give the press the President's fine statement without further delay. In short, the intention to strike at McCarthy was abundantly clear.

Meanwhile, the desire to create a diversion drove Senator McCarthy to his attack on Bundy. Bundy, who comes of a distinguished Massachusetts Republican family, is Dean Acheson's son-in-law. As an acquaintance of Alger Hiss, he gave $400 to the Hiss defense fund, so that the wrongdoer might be fairly tried.

The only crimes charged against Bundy are his marriage to one of the most beautiful women in Washington, and his adherence to the American tradition that every man has a right to a fair trial. To answer to these crimes, Bundy was subpoenaed by McCarthy.

Allen Dulles, Bundy's boss, told Eisenhower that no intelligence agency could possibly continue to operate effectively if its employees were subject to Congressional inquisition. He said that he would have to resign if the President could not protect the CIA from such investigators as McCarthy. Eisenhower then promised to support Dulles to the limit.

In short, the real Eisenhower, the man of courage and high principle, who does not appease and will not yield to blackmail, at last seems to be taking charge. If this happens, it will be a very sad day for the junior Senator from Wisconsin.

IN HOLLYWOOD — By CLEMENT JONES

Deadest Actor in Town

HOLLYWOOD (UP)—The next time you see a movie in which a group of warriors are strewn all over each other on a battlefield, look for Johnny Daheim. Chances are he'll be on top of the heap.

Daheim, a young veteran of the movie stunt man game, makes a good living by playing dead on an average of two or three times a week.

He's been at the head of Hollywood's rigor mortis ranks for so long that he considers it a compliment when someone refers to him as a big stiff.

Daheim's scrapbook is filled with enthusiastic testimonials from movie directors who have had occasion to use his unique services. Cecil B. DeMille, for instance, inscribed the tribute:

"John has 'died' for me more than a score of times in the past few years. I thoroughly recommend him as the deadest actor in town."

Frank Capra's praise was shorter, and to the point: "Here's to Johnny Daheim—the one-man Forest Lawn."

These recommendations and the scores of others inscribed in his book prove that Daheim is busier than most stunt men who make their living by remaining alive.

Johnny's current "stiff" assignment is a close-up scene as a decreased Mexican in Universal-International's Van Heflin-Julia Adams 3-D epic, "Wings of the Hawk." The job marks a milestone in Johnny's career, inasmuch as it will be the first time he has expired in third dimension.

"I've kicked the bucket in Technicolor more times than I can remember," says Daheim. "But this time I get both color and 3-D. What an assignment!"

Daheim owes much of his success to his ability to leap over a barricade of chairs or logs, trade shots with an enemy and pass into the Happy Hunting Grounds on any given spot.

That he can "hold stiff" (in movie cameraman parlance) is another of his singular accomplishments. During a scene on a desert location recently he was required to hold a position for five hours (with one hour out for lunch).

"I was stiff while I was lying there, and stiffer when I finally got up," said the actor. "That desert land is really tough on a guy's sacroiliac."

The expansion plans have not been disclosed.

CAMPBELL RIVER — Edward Carnegie led a delegation of fishermen at a meeting of village commissioners this week to protest the newly-imposed charge for using the fishermen's float here.

They said mooring rates, ranging from 50 cents to $1.50 per day, were unpopular with them and would drive tourists away. They were advised to contact T. E. Morrison of the Department of Transport, Victoria, who said the fees should be charged.

COURTENAY.—Considerable work has been done on the senior citizens' home here by carpenters who, refusing to work on construction of a hangar at Comox Airport, have given their services to the home.

Committee in charge is considering hiring two carpenters who would be on hand at all times to direct volunteer workers. Forms are now ready for the pouring of concrete for the building's foundation.

Alberta Oil Production Last Year Up 13 Million Barrels

EDMONTON, Alta. (BUP) — The Alberta department of economic affairs predicted today Canada soon would be self-sufficient in petroleum after oil fields in the province expanded at such a rate in 1952 that this country became the world's ninth largest oil producer.

The department, in its Alberta oil review for last year, said output totaled 58,915,723 barrels, compared with 45,915,384 barrels in 1951.

"The growth of the petroleum industry since 1947 has been spectacular," the department said. It cited a 25-fold increase in reserves, a 15-fold increase in production and a 25-fold increase in exploration expenditure.

At the end of 1952, there were 3,313 crude oil wells operating in the province and 158 drilling rigs and 127 geophysical parties were in the field. There were 984 new discoveries during 1952, and all but 38 "gassers" were oil producers.

The government review estimated Alberta crude oil reserves at between 1,250,000,000 and 1,500,000,000 barrels. This was in addition to an estimated 200,000,000,000 barrels in the untapped Athabasca tar sands.

Also last year, Alberta produced more than 95 billion cubic feet of natural gas, but development of gas was hampered by lack of markets.

AIRMAN IDENTIFIED

LANGRUTH, Man. (CP)—RCAF officials late Thursday released the name of one of two men killed when their Harvard training plane crashed on a dive-bombing exercise at the air-to-ground firing range on the west side of Lake Manitoba.

Dead is FO A. B. MacGregor, 23, an instructor from Moose Creek, Ont. The other man, a NATO student airman from Holland, was not identified pending notification of next-of-kin.

STAMPEDE OPENS

MEDICINE HAT (CP)—Record crowds turned out Thursday for the opening events of Medicine Hat's three-day Stampede.

The seventh annual exhibition was officially opened by Mayor J. B. Austin of Great Falls, Mont., before a capacity crowd of 5,500 in the stands.

Some 15,000 spectators lined downtown streets in the morning to watch the two-mile-long parade.

Ninety-two cowboys are entered in the five main Stampede events with winners to be declared Saturday.

MONUMENT UNVEILING

OTTAWA (BUP)—A monument to the clergyman for whom Lloydminster, Sask., is named will be unveiled in the town next Monday by Agriculture Minister J. G. Gardiner, the resources department said Wednesday night.

The monument to Bishop George Exton Lloyd was erected by the resources department on the recommendation of the historic sites and monuments board.

The English-born prelate was most noted for leading more than 1,400 British colonists from Saskatoon to the present site of Lloydminster in 1903.

He is credited with saying during the overland trek: "We have not come all this way to quit."

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)—Little Rock police today went looking for a householder wanted for failing to pay his garbage-collection fee.

They found him—working on a city garbage collection crew.

CPR Rails To Be Clear By Tonight

VANCOUVER (CP) — Railway officials announced Thursday night that there will be no CPR passenger service out of Vancouver for Eastern Canada until tonight.

Officials said repair crews were still working on washouts which severed the main line in the Revelstoke-Stephen area Tuesday.

They expected the line to be cleared late Thursday, allowing 11 westbound trains to arrive here today.

In Calgary, CPR officials said passenger trains were moving on their own tracks by 2 p.m. Thursday. Earlier they had been detoured.

Westbound Canadian National trains were delayed six hours Thursday by a rock slide 20 miles west of Kamloops.

Foes of Chain Store Get Re-Zoning Delay

Property owners and licensees who protested the proposed rezoning of the south side of Simcoe between Croft and Menzies Street to permit erection of a chain store succeeded in having the matter postponed at a public hearing prior to city council meeting Thursday.

Terence P. O'Grady, representing some of the property owners, said 60 in the immediate area were opposed to the requested rezoning from single-family to commercial.

He said there were already 14 stores in the area, seven of them in the immediate vicinity of the proposed chain store.

MAY BE ABANDONED

He raised the question of "economic warfare for the sake of one store" and felt the result might be five or six abandoned stores. One large grocery, he said, had been established in the area for 40 years.

Council agreed to refer the matter back to the Town Planning Commission to give petitioners an opportunity to present their case. The commission had recommended the rezoning, applied for by J. A. Peacey, be allowed.

Mr. O'Grady said petitioners contended rezoning should not be granted for individual convenience but for public interest. They claimed also that extension of commercial zoning should be allowed only where it was economically justified.

"It is in the public interest to build another store there," declared Russell Ker, representing Mr. Peacey. "That is the only commercial area available in James Bay today."

Driver Fined $10

Driver of a truck from which two mail-carrying trailers broke free and caused $200 damage in a collision with a parked car on Langley Street July 6, George Robert Logan, 2632 Blanshard, was fined $10 in city police court Thursday. He pleaded guilty to a charge of having a faulty main coupling linking the truck with the trailers.

Nursing Home Action By B.C., Mayor Hints

'Wouldn't Be Surprised' He Tells Council At Meeting Asked By Welfare Committee

Mayor Claude Harrison told City Council meeting Thursday he "wouldn't be surprised if the provincial government had something on its mind" in connection with the 104-bed addition to Victoria Nursing Home on Gorge Road.

He did not care to elaborate after the meeting but stated:

"It's obvious the city doesn't want to operate a nursing home."

Council took no action on the controversial issue pending the outcome of a proposed parley between city representatives and the provincial cabinet.

Welfare committee asked for a meeting with the cabinet today to discuss the question of obtaining legislation that will permit use of $150,000 from tax sale revenue, as the city's share of the $450,000 addition.

Up to Tuesday, when the welfare committee held its meeting, this was believed the only stumbling block. The city could not legally give the funds to the Nursing Home Society for the addition.

WANTS POLICY SET

Since then however, Mayor Harrison has stated that before anything further can be done the city must set a policy on whether it wants to construct and operate a nursing home or not.

He holds this view as a result of a judgment handed down recently which found the arena commission "agents" of the city and the city liable for damages in a suit. He feels the same thing applies to the nursing home.

"So far as I'm concerned I don't want the city to go into the hospital business," declared Ald. Percy Scurrah, on hearing the mayor's memorandum.

"I always felt the nursing home was a separate entity," he said. "However we are committed and should pay the $150,000 for the addition. I'd like to see our responsibility cease after that."

CITY OBLIGATED

Ald. Waldo Skillings pointed out that under the Residents' Responsibility Act the city is obligated to look after the aged and indigent.

"That's why the government pays 80 per cent of the cost of welfare and the city pays 20 per cent," he said.

Ald. Skillings termed the mayor's memorandum "very fair" and said "every member of council wishes to do things legally."

Nine men are waiting for nursing home beds now, according to a report of Welfare Administrator Mrs. Florence Mutrie.

Ald. Margaret Christie, chairman of the welfare committee and prime mover of the nursing home project, was not at the meeting. She was appointed by the parks committee, of which she is a member, to attend the International Northwest Parks Association convention at Bellingham, Thursday, Friday and Saturday of this week.

MR. PRESIDENT SENDS REGRETS

President Eisenhower will be unable to visit Victoria in August during the course of his tour of the U.S. Pacific Northwest, Mayor Claude Harrison learned Thursday.

R. D. Muir, acting chief of protocol for the state department, wrote the mayor that owing to the President's full schedule he would be unable to go outside the United States on his proposed tour.

"The President has asked me particularly to convey to you his great appreciation of your kind invitation which he would be happy to accept if it were possible for him to do so," Mr. Muir wrote.

Army maintenance facilities renovated more than 117,972 tons of World War I ammunition and salvaged 227,617 tons of material during the past year.

Yanks Lose Ground

Chisox Win Pair; Brooks Boost Lead

It didn't take New York Yankees long to find out that this western trip is going to be different.

Only a month ago the league leaders blazed through St. Louis, Chicago, Cleveland and Detroit on an all-victorious tour of 14 games. This time they got stopped before they got started.

The Yankees virtually invented the home run and the lowly St. Louis Browns made them mighty sorry for it in the opening game of a twilight-night twin bill. The Browns pounded three in a row in the first inning, tying the major league record, and added two more later in the contest for an 8-6 victory.

The defeat was the first of the year for the Yankees in St. Louis and although they rallied to take the nightcap 7-3 they lost a full game of their first place margin to the hustling Chicago White Sox, two-time winners over Washington.

The Sox won the first game in 10 innings 6-5 and the second 5-4. Billy Pierce, pitching in relief, drove home the deciding run with a single in the first game for his 11th victory. A pinch-hit home run by Eddie Stewart made the difference in the second. The Sox now trail by four.

The two other first division American League teams also triumphed. Cleveland beat Philadelphia 5-3 on Al Rosen's grand-slam home run and Boston nipped Detroit 3-2 with Mel Parnell winning his 13th game, tops in the circuit.

DODGERS GAIN

Brooklyn increased its National League lead to 2½ games by trouncing St. Louis 9-2, while second-place Milwaukee was losing to Pittsburgh 5-2.

Philadelphia won a couple of squeakers from Cincinnati 3-1 and 3-2. Robin Roberts won his 15th game of the year in the opener. And New York Giants, who had won eight in a row before the Dodgers stopped them in the final game before the all-star break, resumed their winning habits with a 10-3 decision over Chicago.

A double by Mike Garcia and a pair of walks set the stage for Rosen's grand slam at Cleveland. The blast broke up a scoreless duel between Garcia and Marion Fricano.

Prior to Rescue, Tyees Nip Chiefs

Injuries Still Plague Locals; Meet Tri-City

Tyees 8, Wenatchee 7

Victoria Tyees tightrope-walked to a jittery 8-7 victory over Wenatchee Chiefs in the apple valley Thursday night and gained a split in the four-game set with the Chiefs.

After building up an 8-1 lead in the first five and a half innings, the Tyees saw the edge vanish like a snowball on a griddle when the Chiefs scored six runs in the bottom of the sixth on a lone base hit.

Starting pitcher Bill Bottler ran into his old control trouble and walked five men to force in two runs. He departed with the bases loaded and one out as manager Cec Garriott called Bill Prior from the bullpen.

Prior, who was belted in a relief appearance on Wednesday night, walked in two more runs and then was touched for a two-run single by Tom Munoz. However, the right-hander wriggled out of the jam by coaxing Lyle Palmer to hit into an inning-ending double play.

Prior gave up only one base blow in pitching shutout ball for the next three innings. Wenatchee got the tying and winning runs on base in the ninth but were unable to check them in.

Bob Moniz started the Tyees' winning rally in the top of the sixth, belting his second home run of the year, and Palmer dropped Dwane Helbig's left-field loft, allowing Milt Martin and Don Pries to score.

MONIZ COMES THROUGH

Moniz, having trouble getting his base hits this year, had a hefty night at the plate with two singles, in addition to his home run, and scored three runs. Pies and Berlyn Hodges walloped two hits each.

Hodges replaced the ailing Chuck Abernathy at first base, Pries filled in at shortstop and Moniz played third base as Garriott was forced to juggle his players to make up for injuries.

Tonight the Tyees open a four-game stand at Tri-City.

MAYBE SPENCE COULD SELL 'EM TO THE REFS

Spence Mathews and his wife are lacrosse fans and right now they are angry lacrosse fans.

Rankled over the refereeing of Wednesday night's game between Victoria Shamrocks and PNE Indians, Mathews has stated he is putting his tickets for the next game up for grabs.

Although he claims he and his wife have never missed a Shamrock home game, he says that the first person phoning the Times sports department can have two ducats for next Wednesday night's game between Shamrocks and Nanaimo Native Sons.

IMPORTANT SERIES

WIL Leaders Clash Head-on

The Western International Baseball League's two front-runners will collide head-on this week-end in a series that may point the way to the pennant.

Salem Senators, champions of the first half of the loop's split season, will entertain Spokane Indians, the main obstacle to their bid for a sweep, for four games starting tonight.

The Indians, who zoomed to the top after they got untracked in closing weeks of the first half campaign, will open the series with a half-game edge over the Senators. Spokane has won 13 and lost four second-half games, and Salem has won 12 and lost four.

Both teams racked up victories Thursday night.

SERIES SWEEP

Spokane thumped Lewiston 6-3 to sweep the three-game series with the Broncs, and Salem edged Calgary 4-3 for a 3-1 edge in the series at Salem.

Yakima also landed in the win column, drubbing Vancouver 12-3.

Farmers Stretch Winning Streak

Farmers 21, Central Cartage 8

Farmer Construction continued on its unbeaten way in the Senior Amateur Baseball League Thursday night, clobbering winless Central Cartage to the tune of 21-8 at Royal Athletic Park.

Victory was Farmers 16th in as many league starts and increased the club's league lead to eight games over second-place Eagles. Loss for Central Cartage was its 14th straight defeat.

Farmers got away to a quick start scoring eight runs in the first inning, sending 12 batters to the plate against the offerings of youthful Dave Price and relief hurler Dave Wakelyn.

Price gave over to Wakelyn after facing seven batters and being unable to retire one, giving up two walks and three hits.

Ed Corbett took the mound for the winners and was never in serious trouble, although giving up two runs in the fourth and fifth innings before being pulled in favor of lefty Bill Garner.

Lowell Hodges was the big gun for Farmers with two hits, including a double, while Ronnie Martin and Pete Ash each picked up two singles.

Catcher Fred Summer connected for three singles for Cartagemen and Howard Barker had two.

PILSENERS WIN

Salmonacs Virtually Eliminated

NEW WESTMINSTER, B.C. (CP)—New Westminster Salmonacs saw their Intercity Lacrosse League playoff hopes slip almost out of sight Thursday night when they lost a 19-13 decision to Vancouver Pilseners.

Any combination of two New Westminster losses or two Nanaimo wins will mathematically eliminate Salmonacs from a playoff berth.

The home team had a great chance to stop Pilseners for the third straight time on their home floor. They led 5-1 at the end of the first quarter as the Pilsener attack had trouble shaking a stubborn defense.

Eight big goals in the second period turned the game into a rout for Vancouver.

Loss dropped Copleys into third place, one-half game behind Sidney Merchants. Copleys will meet stiff opposition in their battle to move back up the ladder when they take the field against league-leading Individuals at Lower Central Park, Monday night at 6.30.

Pitt & Holt, behind 3-2 going into the sixth frame, came up with four runs for the winning margin and then clinched matters in the seventh with another five markers.

Hits by Pat Michael and M. Coughlin, an error and two walks accounted for the sixth-inning outburst.

Cathie McDonald picked up the win for Pitt & Holt and was in no trouble, except the first inning when the losers scored all their runs.

Smythe Gains Finals In City Net Tourney

Major events of the city tennis championships at Victoria Lawn Tennis and Badminton Club are running true to form so far.

Thursday night Ted Smythe advanced into the final round of the men's singles competition with an easy straight-set victory over Carl Brand, winning 6-3, 6-0. It was erroneously reported in the Times Thursday that Smythe was to meet Brand in the finals.

Warren Cameron, defending champion, eased into the semi-finals by ousting Jack Butt, 6-3, 6-2, in a suprisingly easy verdict. Cameron now is scheduled to meet Ron Mitchell who eliminated G. Bishop, 6-2, 6-3.

Cameron and Peter Peacock advanced in men's doubles play by ousting Jack Parker and Bill Dunbar, 6-1, 6-2, 6-1. The other finalist in this section will be decided tonight when Jack Butt and Smythe match strokes with Rex Jackson and Jim McArthur, who breezed to a 6-0, 6-2 win over Art and Ed Ngai Thursday night.

Upset of the day occurred when Mrs. G. Dawson moved into the semi-final round in women's singles with a 4-6, 6-2, 6-2 victory over favored Ruth Sherman.

Tillicums Lead Senior Zone Series

Muscular Jack Elliott pitched a masterful game Thursday night as Tillicums clipped Esquimalt Athletics 12-3 in the first game of the Senior B Men's Softball League zone playoffs.

The big fast-baller gave up all Esquimalt runs in the first inning but settled down to pitch one-hit, shut-out ball over the next eight frames.

The clubs meet in the second game of the best-of-three set Saturday night while Mary's Coffee Bar and Joe Fosters tangle in the other zone semi-final tonight at Heywood Avenue at 6.30.

Bob Abbott, with two singles and a double and Joe Clarkson and Stan Smith, each with three singles, led the winners at the plate.

Opposing centrefielders Gordy Ball of Esquimalt and Bill Merluk of Tillicums turned in the fielding gems of the night, with diving, one-handed catches in the seventh.

Hart Holds Big Lead In Seniors' Tee Meet

Colin D. Hart of Victoria Golf Club checked in a 72 on his home course Thursday to take a six-stroke lead over runner-up G. B. Sparling in the annual Vancouver Island Seniors' Golf Tournament.

Final round of the 54-hole competition was scheduled for play today at the Colwood links.

Hart, who shot an 82 in first-round play, lowered his score by 10 strokes and is now solidly in top spot with a two-round score of 154.

Sparling, who paced the field in the first 36 holes, ran into trouble and posted an 83 to add to his 77 and give him a total of 160.

Hart and Spaulding are tied for low net honors with 138's. If Hart cops the event he will win the Hon. John Hart Trophy for low gross score and leave Spaulding in the favored position to win the W. & J. Wilson Trophy for low net.

Five other divoters who could easily capture the low net award are R. J. Darcus, 140; L. G. Biss, 141, and A. L. Styles, Dr. H. H. Livesey and L. McCooey, tied at 142.

In addition to the all-star game, the Sunday program will feature field events — running, pitching and throwing — between one member of each team who will compete for cups.

A large entry list is expected and Joseph Dodds, well known international judge, will be on hand to judge all exhibits in the main event.

Classes are provided for all breeds of purebred dogs from three months of age and upwards.

Grounds will open at 1.30 and entries will be taken from that time until 2.30 when judging will commence.

Druce Lost to Irish For Game at Nanaimo

Tommy Druce, whose brawn makes him a handy guy to have around when playing Nanaimo Native Sons, will not be in the Victoria Shamrock line-up Saturday night when the Irish meet the Sons at Nanaimo in an intercity Lacrosse League match.

Druce, who played with an injured finger anesthetized Wednesday night, reinjured the digit and had it lanced Thursday, forcing him out of the line-up.

His place will be taken by Elmer Matthews.

Shamrock line-up has Jim Hetherington in goal, Norm Coates partnering with Bill Bamford on one defence combo and Jackie Thompson and Bob Anderson on the other.

The Whitey Severson-Al Gill-Larry Booth and Arnie Ferguson-Sarge Sammartino-Jack Northup lines will remain intact, while Matthews will work with Harry Irwin and Bob Monaghan.

SOLARIUM CHILDREN ONES TO BENEFIT HERE

Ed Opens His Big Heart Wide

By ROY THORSEN

"Would you like to help the crippled kiddies?"

That soft-spoken question was the voice of Edmund Duffin, 314 Irving, addressed to passers-by in front of the Wilson and Fenfesty sporting goods store at 1225 Government Street today.

Ed is on his annual campaign to net some dollars for the Queen Alexandra Solarium — and the magnet is a giant salmon. Anyone who guesses the correct weight (or closest to it) of the fish can have it for the cold-storage locker. A guess costs 25 cents.

This feature is linked with the annual Solarium salmon benefit fishing derby to be held in Saanich Inlet July 26, and co-sponsored by the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association and the Victoria Daily Times.

The prize list, richest in the history of the six-year-old one-day classic, is worth $3,500. A four wheeled beauty goes with it.

The big salmon was donated by J. H. Todd and Sons. It was caught in the Sooke traps. Guessing contest will continue until Saturday night.

Duffin is a champion "help the Solarium" booster. The handsome trophy he donated goes with the angler weighing the biggest fish on Solarium Day.

Born in Greenwich, England, Ed had tough sleddin' to make a go of it for many years on the Prairies before amassing a stake sufficient to carry him and his wife through retirement years.

A boxer most of his life—and still offering his guidance in this sport to local youngsters—Duffin served in the Royal Navy from 1904 to 1908. The pay was 12 cents a week. He came to Canada in 1908 and started working as a farm hand at $8 a month ($96 a year). After many years he managed to build up a $2,000 bank account and went into grain farming.

ED. DUFFIN
. . . friend of the needy.

He lost every cent because of unfavorable weather.

He "plugged" along for another 12 years, went into the hardware game, went broke again and decided—with only a few dollars in his pocket—to head for northern Saskatchewan bush country to Nut Mountain.

There his luck changed. Everything he touched provided a good yield.

"But I had to work like a slave. I opened a hardware store, bought and sold timber and cattle . . . and was the town's undertaker," he recalled with a grin.

Nine years ago he and the wife came to Victoria to retire.

His hobbies, aside from going all-out for the Solarium and teaching boxing to youngsters, now include gardening.

Ed, before coming to Canada, was good in the ring. He was a county amateur welterweight champion in England. Many youngsters here are thankful for the ring training given them by Duffin. He is now the chief coach for the Victoria Fire Department's boxing club. He's been in boxing 40 years.

But today and Saturday his appeal will be:

"Would you like to help the crippled children?"

It's an appeal that will be hard to turn down.

ON THE OUTDOOR FRONT

With ROY THORSEN

Directorate of the Victoria-Saanich Inlet Anglers' Association these days is split into two factions—the smug . . . and the sad.

It's all to do with the current mammoth salmon ladder derby of the angling clan in Saanich Inlet waters.

Some of the executive club have made the grade in one of the weekly events of the 10-week classic and are assured of a berth in the final fishoff for $3,500 worth of prizes on August 13.

Others have combed the same waters week after week only to finish up among the disgruntled crowd—those who get goose-eggs.

But now it turns out that the successful members of the executive really have big hearts.

They have devised a plan which might assist their less-fortunate compatriots.

The idea, born by Alfred "Andy" Anderson and Cliff Heglin, is that all committeemen not on the ladder have a private derby of their own. "And," says derby chairman Anderson "we'll even go so far as to not fish ourselves to give those fellows a better chance to make the ladder."

The "charity" cruises will be held Sunday.

The offer also extends to several other prominent members of the club, such as newspaper and radio men.

I hear via the grapevine that among the invited are Wil Wilson (club prexy), Wes Fulton (Solarium derby chief), George Douglas (secretary), Don Esselmont, Johnny Angus, Dave Gray, Stan Williams, Denny Boyd, Dan Thomas, and CJVI sportscaster Ted Reynolds.

Small-fry fishermen took over the limelight on the fishing derbies' front during the week. More than 100 of them, all of juvenile age, invaded the Dallas Road breakwater and adjacent wharves Wednesday to try for prizes in the annual derby sponsored by the city supervised playgrounds organization.

Kids with rods and handlines dotted the breakwater shelves and the wharfs of Ogden Point seeking any type of fish that would take a lure. And the lures covered every variety known, garden and sea-worms, pieces of white rag, spoons and plugs.

It didn't make any difference what type of fish was caught. The weightiest of any type won the prizes. Bosses of the show were Gordon Hartley and Gerry Horne. "It's fun to watch them," said Hartley, who will be heading for Campbell River in a week to seek some good-sized salmon.

Biggest trap-skeet shoot of the year in these parts will be held August 1 and 2 on the grounds of the Victoria Gun Club on Albert Head Road.

It is a double-championship affair. Featured is the B.C. skeet championships tournament, to be held August 2. The Victoria City trap tournament will be held Saturday, August 1. Shooting will start each day at 9. a.m. Both are registered shoots. The trap competition is registered under PITA the skeet under NSSA. Prize and optional money will feature each shoot.

* * *

By the way, there is a trophy shoot at those grounds Sunday, starting at 1 p.m. Shooters will be gunning for leg honors in the Humber, CIL, Colonist, C & C and Zacarrelli doubles trophies.

"Just had a phone call from Dunc Turner of Qualicum Beach and he says fishing in the saltchuck is pretty good there at the present time," Stan Williams reported Thursday morning. Stan also reports that salmon fishing is good off Comox and Oyster River with the Campbell River area offering fine trout and salmon fishing. . . . Nice coho fishing off East Point, South Saturna Island, now. . . . Evening fishing off Deep Cove is good. . . .

* * *

Most distressed city policeman-fisherman last week was Sgt. Stan Holmes. He fretted terribly, even challenged yours truly, when he didn't see his nine-pounder listed in the paper on the unofficial lists of the ladder derby. He finally breathed a sigh of relief on seeing his catch listed on the official list. . . . But the most chestiest of the police gang was Jim Baxter. He had no worries about his catch holding a rung. It went 19 pounds.

Helping the Solarium

This is Ralph Wherry, 754 Cloverdale. Before we go any further, there is something about Frank's life none but his closest friends know. He's a triple Purple Heart winner. Wherry was wounded three times while with the U.S. tank battalion No. 736 in the last war. But to bring him into focus on this angle, Frank is a taxidermist and a member of the committee promoting the Anglers-Times salmon derby July 26 in Saanich Inlet to gather an armful of dollars for the Queen Alexandra Solarium, which cares for and cures crippled kiddies. He's been working with the VSIAA and Times the last three years on the Solarium derby. Victoria-born and educated, Wherry took over operation of the well-known taxidermist firm when Nathaniel Wherry died. Derby tickets are $1 and can be secured from any committee member or at sporting goods stores. Buy one and help us to help the crippled kiddies, won't you.

IN THE FAMILY

One Jones Boy Helps Another

Navy 4, Butler's 3

A couple of the "Jones Boys" provided all the copy for Thursday night's Senior A Softball game between Butler's Aces and Navy at Central Park.

One of them, Norm, who plays second base for Navy, was looking for a hole to crawl into after he made two costly errors in the ninth inning to allow Aces to tie the game at 2-2.

The other, Roy, who plays rightfield for the bluejackets and is no relation, upheld the family name by banging out a two-out single in the last of the 11th inning to drive in Ray Irwin from second base with the winning run in Navy's 4-3 decision.

By losing, Aces now stand to wind up the season in third place. There are only nine games left in the league schedule and the suburbanites play only two.

Navy, on the other hand, cannot improve their fourth-place position. They have three games left, plus an awaited decision on their protest of a 9-9 tie with Capital City Gasmen which will be decided this coming weekend.

George Kinch, Navy's portsider, retired the first 12 batters in a row. Frank Kilshaw was the first man of the Aces to reach base when he singled sharply to open the fifth inning.

Phil Benn followed with a gift double to rightfield that Roy Jones misjudged and a third hit by Ronnie Benn drove home Kilshaw with Aces' first run.

That run matched a singleton picked up by Navy in the third when Mickey Smith, who had a solid three-for-five night, singled home Jeff Worrall from second.

Navy scored the go-ahead run in the seventh when Smith singled again to score Kinch and that tally stood up until the ninth.

Aces scored in the top of the 10th after Smith threw the ball into right field in attempting to pick Whitey Turner off first, and Turner crossed home plate on another miscue by Norm Jones.

The bluejackets fought back in their half of the 10th and almost scored the clincher after Archie Sluggett forced in the tying run by walking Ken Pollock with the bases loaded.

The action will be hot and heavy tonight at Central Park when Chinese Students and Capital City Gasmen meet. Students at present are only one point back in second place and they have one game in hand over the Gasmen.

Short score follows:

Beacon Hill defeated Navy for the third successive time in a friendly cricket match at Beacon Hill Park, Wednesday, taking the verdict by a single run.

Navy, batting first, ran up 120 runs, Strath Goddard accounting for 21 and Dave McKenzie 19.

The last over had been called and nine wickets were down when Micky Shanks drove the ball to the boundary to account for the victory. Ben Twamley posted 40 runs and L. Greenhouse 34 to lead the Beacon Hill team.

Jons to Meet Thesz In World Title Match

When world heavyweight westling champion Lou Thesz puts in an appearance at Memorial Arena July 25 he will meet one of the most popular and colorful grapplers to strike the local mat scene, namely, Dave Jons of London, England.

Jons was given the honor of grappling with Thesz after battling to a draw with negro wrestler Luther Lindsay in the final of an elimination tourney at Memorial Arena Thursday night.

Lindsay announced after the match that as Jons was a representative of Great Britain he should be given the chance to meet Thesz.

In first-round matches of the eight-man tourney Gypsy Moe Faieta beat Pepper Gomez; Jons beat Angelo Poffo; Don Kindred beat Danno McDonald and Lindsay beat Axel Cadier. Jons eliminated Faieta in one semi-final bout while Lindsay ousted Kindred in the other.

SYRACUSE, N.Y.—Joey DeJohn, 162½, Syracuse, knocked out Hurley Sanders, 159, Newark, N.J., 4.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

By EDWIN JORDAN, MD

New Developments in Eye Surgery Relieve Cataracts

The easiest way to describe cataracts is to liken them to what happens with a camera. When the lens of a camera is badly smudged, the picture which it takes will be cloudy. A cataract is similar. Clouding develops in that part of the eye which serves as a lens. Objects viewed through a clouded lens are no longer clear and sharp.

Cataracts usually develop in the later years of life. A cataract is one of the difficulties with vision which tend to occur with advancing age. Occasionally one can be present at birth and sometimes it is connected with certain diseases.

The amount of disturbance in sight depends on whether all or only a part of the lens is affected, and also on the degree of the clouding. For this reason persons with catraacts do not all have the same amount of difficulty. Also, cataracts vary in the speed with which the clouding of the lens progresses.

It is common to speak of a beginning cataract is "incipient" and, when it is full grown and not getting worse, as mature, or "ripe." The general opinion is that there are no medical treatments, that is, drugs, which can be used to dissolve the material which clouds the lens and to restore normal vision. This may come some day and promising work in this direction has been reported.

At present, the preferred treatment for cataract is an operation. Results are usually good. Formerly, it was necessary to wait until a cataract was mature, or ripe, before it could be removed. Now surgical methods are available which make it possible to remove a lens with a cataract on it at any stage. This is a tremendous advance as it may prevent years of poor vision.

CAUSES NOT KNOWN

The causes of cataract are not known, but certainly age plays a part and in some cases diabetes, occupation, injury, or perhaps heredity.

There is no reason to believe that eyestrain leads to the development of cataract, though of course it can lead to other disturbances of the eye. The most encouraging developments regarding cataracts are those in surgery, which often makes possible their removal before being ripe.

Fruit Crops of $350,000 For Island

Total yields of principal small fruits on Vancouver Island is expected to aggregate 200,000 crates and gross about $350,000, according to an estimate by agriculture experts here. Ninety per cent of Island production is on the Saanich peninsula.

The yield is expected to surpass those of 1952 and to be the largest since 1948.

Heading the list is the strawberry crop which has yielded about 53,000 crates. Last year the crop yielded 51,821 crates.

J. J. Young, manager of the Fruit Growers' Association, said the strawberry crop will gross at least about $162,000 when an inventory of the production and sales are completed.

LOGAN YIELD UP

The loganberry crop is expected to yield 40,000 crates as compared with 29,573 in 1952. The total value of the crop is set at about $160,000.

The cherry production is expected to yield about 4,000 crates and gross about $16,000.

Other small fruits such as blackberries and raspberries are expected to yield at least 3,000 crates.

Air Cadet Tour Includes City

The Air Cadet League and the Royal Canadian Air Force will bring 58 Air Cadets from Britain, the United States, Norway, Sweden, Holland and Denmark to Canada this summer as part of an international exchange program, it was announced in Ottawa today.

They will visit Victoria during the tour.

A similar number of Canadian air cadets will tour the U.S., Britain and Europe.

Air Cadet headquarters said 25 American civil air patrol cadets would fly by RCAF North Star from Montreal July 24 to the west coast.

WANTED: ONE SPONSOR

Annual Indian Festival Requires City Backer

A native Indian celebration on Songhees Reservation during the Labor Day week will be recommended to Chamber of Commerce Tourist Trade group by a sub-committee planning year-round tourist entertainment.

It will be suggested the celebration should be on an annual basis, starting this year. Implementation will depend entirely upon sponsorship.

Proposed program has been blueprinted by the sub-committee headed by C. M. "Bob" Nelles after consultation with Chief Percy Ross of the Songhees.

Suggested features include re-creating of old-time Indian life, displays showing the making of canoes and totem poles, salmon smoking, basket weaving, sweater knitting, tribal dances.

If the Indian Affairs Department at Ottawa will permit, a "token potlach" would be a highlight.

The sub-committee was created by Chamber of Commerce Tourist Trade group last month. Its sole task is to prepare plans for suggested events that would provide year-round entertainment for tourists. It does not sponsor the events; that role is left to appropriate local organizations.

Already Mr. Nelles' group has produced a blueprint for a week-long garden festival in the spring. Also on its calendar are plans for Chinese New Year each January, May 24 as Victoria's own day, and sail and speedboat races annually in September-October.

Indian Handicraft To Be Displayed In School Exhibit

Paintings and handicrafts from 20 B.C. Indian schools will be on display at the 11th annual Indian school art exhibition opening Monday at the Provincial Museum.

The B.C. Indian Arts and Welfare Society sponsored exhibition will be opened by H. L. Campbell, deputy minister of education, at 2.30 in the afternoon.

Some 50 cash prizes, as well as a Memorial Art Scholarship worth $75, will be awarded.

Judges of the competition are Colin Graham, curator of the Arts Centre of Greater Victoria; George Sinclair of the department of education, and Frank Beebe of the Provincial Museum.

(OSCAR CLASS) "TITANIC" (Odeon)—It was most difficult to arrive at a decision whether to give this 20th Century-Fox version of the sinking of the Titanic full marks or something lower.

Briefly, it came to making a choice between whether one thought Charles Brackett, Walter Reisch, Richard Breen, the writers, hadn't overly accented a fictionized love story between Clifton Webb and Barbara Stanwyck so that it over-shadowed the sinking of the "unsinkable colossus of the sea" April 15, 1912, with the loss of more than two-third of her 2,229 socially prominent passengers.

Then, in the end, you arrive at the conclusion that with the superb acting of Webb and Stanwyck the tragedy of the century was made all the more tragic and would have been very flat without it.

Truly, it is a fine film, one of the finest you will see this year. This is a picture for which Academy Awards are made. Although the members of the excellent cast or the picture itself may not finally win, it is safe to predict that the stars mentioned will win nomination at the very least.

The story of the Titanic is well-known, to my generation at least. This was her maiden voyage. Her passenger list included the Astors, the Strauses, the Guggenheims and many more of the socially prominent. Capt. C. E. Smith, played beautifully by Brian Aberne, is supremely confident that nothing can sink this magnificent vessel of his, with its double hull and intricate arrangement of water-tight compartments. His only care, it appears, is the creating of a new trans-Atlantic speed record.

From the outset, of course, one knows that the Titanic has a fatal rendezvouse with an iceberg. You are never allowed to forget it. Making it even more prominent is the conflict between Richard (Webb) Sturgess and his wife Julia (Stanwyck). He is a social gadfly, always being seen at the right place at the right season. She is a girl once from the midwest who doesn't want her children, Audrey Dalton and Harper Carter, to grow up in the same restless, useless circle as her husband's. After 20 years of marriage they are to separate. When her husband becomes too bitter and demanding, on the verge of taking her children from her, Julia plays her trump card. She tells him that their son isn't his.

When the iceberg humbles the once proud Titanic the film arises to immense theatrical heights. Playing on a low keynote, but playing it like the masters they are, Webb portrays a spiritually small man rising to the occasion, as does Miss Stanwyck, as the woman who sees too late what might have been.

Acting honors go also to Robert Wagner as the young tennis player from Purdue who falls in love with the Sturges' young daughter and to young Harper Carter for his role of the father-worshipping son. Richard Basehart, the priest who nearly gave up his God; Thelma Ritter, as Mrs. Maude Young, and Allyn Joslyn as Earl Meeker, a pitiable social climber who saves his life by masquerading his way into a lifeboat in woman's clothing, are all of merit.

715.7-MPH New Jet Record

THERMAL, Calif. (UP) — A roaring F-86D Sabre jet streaked through the air at 715.7 miles an hour Thursday to set a new world's speed record.

The North American jet flown by Lieut.-Col. William F. Barns, of Palos Verdes Estates, Calif., broke the November, 1952, record of 698.5 miles an hour set by Capt. J. Slade Nash in another F-86 over the same course here.

Col. Barnes made four passes over the course to obtain his average speed in 105-degree heat. On his south to north runs he reached a top speed of 721.36 miles an hour, but his north to south runs were slower. His exact average was 715.697 miles an hour.

A test official explained the speed run was held here at the below-sea-level inland sea during warm temperature because the speed of sound increases with lower altitude and warmer temperatures.

The air force said the speed test was part of the air research and development command's test program for "the nation's newest air defense interceptor."

Overworked Hens Get Backing From SPCA

By HUMPHREY DAVY

A campaign is afoot here to see that some 4,500,000 hens in British Columbia work shorter hours and get better working conditions.

The campaign to protect the hens has the support of laymen and some poultrymen and farmers on Vancouver Island. They are against a system of egg production which they claim forces a hen to work a 14-hour day under "horrible conditions."

An SPCA official said the question of hen protection is certain to come up on the floor of the organization's annual meeting next year.

Some farmers, it is said, put their mother chickens in coops so small that they can't turn around. Electric lights force the hens to put in between 14 and 16 hours a day. They never leave their small coops until they die.

Mrs. P. Raynor, who formerly raised chickens, said the hens live an unnatural life, which, in her opinion, amounted to cruelty.

The provincial department of agriculture would not comment on the system of egg production. It was pointed out, however, that most poultrymen on Vancouver Island did not produce eggs this way.

The campaign here stemmed from a similar campaign being waged by the Royal Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals in England.

BETWEEN TIMES

By MONTE ROBERTS

Letters to the Idioter department.

Dear Monte:

Election time, as you know, is once more approaching, and being a federal election the candidates wish to impress upon the public that they are interested in Joe Doakes welfare in general.

To prove this, I enclose a piece of evidence—a campaign appeal printed on a blotter, which dropped through the mail slot the other day.

This indicates to me there is a smear campaign in the offing. Am I right?

Anne On Emuss.

No, Anne, you have the wrong idea entirely. This simply means the candidate hasn't a single blot on his record, and is busily soaking up knowledge for the benefit of the electorate.

And there's one thing you must admit, Anne.

This is the first campaign literature you've seen which actually serves a useful purpose.

Dear Mr. Roberts:

Have you any influence at all with Ed Fairey?

This week Ed began broadcasting the Tyee baseball games over CKDA, and if you have any influence with him at all, will you try to persuade him to go back to Spinner Sanctum and the ladies' wear commercials?

The poor Tyees are having enough trouble, hanging on to the bottom rung of the ladder, without Ed bringing them bad luck.

Don't misunderstand me—Ed means well, but those dulcet tones have a soporific effect on the players.

I realize the Tyees have split the four games Ed has broadcast—but let us not push our luck.

Let Ed go back to diamonds, as in jewelry, not in baseball.

ANXIOUS TYEE FAN.

I am sorry, Anxious Tyee Fan, but I don't think anything can be done about it.

Ed seems determined to be the Vice of Baseball.

Dear Monte:

Your column with reference to Canadians doing less damage with their cars than Americans is not exactly correct.

Figures recently provided in, I believe, the Automobile Dealers' News quoted the fact that in the U.S.A. Americans managed to kill seven people per each million miles traveled, and it went on to say Canadians were the world's worst drivers, with a record of almost 10 persons killed per million miles driven.

LOGAN MAYHEW

Thank you, Mr. Mayhew, for restoring my faith in Canada.

Always first—that's us.

TOPICS OF THE TIMES

More than 300 fire-fighters late Thursday brought under control an 800-acre forest fire at Tepee Creek, near Nelson, the B.C. Forest Service reported today.

The blaze was the only big one in B.C.

Meanwhile, the fire hazard is reported decreasing steadily throughout the province because of cool, overcast weather which prevails over most of B.C.

B.C. high school students may soon be learning good driving habits after school hours.

The attorney-general's department is considering institution of after-school classes to teach driving to teen-agers.

The plan would be designed to supercede the high school driver-training classes abolished by the Social Credit government.

A license suspension accompanied a $35 fine imposed against Thomas R. Smithson, 736 Roderick, when he appeared in city police court today on a charge of careless driving. He pleaded guilty. Charge arose from a July 9 collision Smithson was involved in at Craigflower and Pine in which $400 damage was done to vehicles.

Herbert A. Kathrens, 344 Linden, pleaded guilty to a charge of careless driving and was fined $35 in city police court today by Magistrate H. C. Hall. Court was told he was in collision with another vehicle at Johnson and Blanshard July 11. About $800 damage was done to the accused's car, only $75 to the other vehicle.

Failure to wear adequate eye-glasses while driving resulted in a $25 fine being imposed against Blanch Clara Brown, 2379 McNeill Avenue, when she pleaded guilty in city police court today to a violation of a driver's license restriction.

Distinguished Astronomer Lectures Here

The lecture series will be given at Sir James Douglas School each Monday from July 27 to August 24.

A trip to the astrophysical observatory on Little Saanich Mountain has been arranged for August 31.

All lectures are open to the public, and registration may be made at the initial meeting.

The program, with lectures in the order named, follows:

"Learning to Know the Stars," Dr. Andrew McKellar; "Universe of Galaxies," G. J. Odgers; "The Stars in Their Spaces," Prof. Stebbins; "The Sun and His Family," Gordon Shaw, and "Mountaineering on the Moon," Major E. R. Gibson.

Telescopes will be set up on the school grounds.

CLANS GATHER

Scots' Games Draw Entries From Afar

Irish and English residents of James Bay had better get a good night's sleep and brace themselves for the morrow.

Over 300 Scottish pipers and dancers will be taking over Macdonald Park starting at 9.30 in the morning at the annual Highland Games.

The skirl of the pipes will be heard over the neighborhood and tartans will color the landscape.

Hardy athletes will be tossing the caber and shot, while dancers prance the Highland fling or the reel O'Tullock. The pipers will be bursting their lungs to sound their best notes from the ancient Scottish instruments.

Highland Games Association officials report that three plane loads of kilted Highlanders will be flying over from Vancouver while two small bands are expected from Seattle.

Entries will be on hand from as far east as Edmonton and as far south to Portland.

The official opening of the games will take place at 2 o'clock with the Canadian Scottish pipe and brass bands supplying the music. The track and field program also starts at 2.

Dragoon Lies Nineteenth In Ocean Race

Dragoon of Victoria, only Canadian entry in the Honolulu yacht race, was in 19th position this morning, with more than 600 miles to go to the finish line at Diamond Head.

There are 32 entries in the race.

Likely winner appeared to be W. L. Stewart's 67-foot yawl Chubasco, which completed the 2,225 mile race early today and took a firm hold on the handicap lead.

The 61-foot ketch Chiriqui, Chubasco's strongest competitor for the handicap title, was practically becalmed 120 miles from the finish. Chiriqui, owned by Tucker McClure of Los Angeles, had until 4.12 p.m. today to reach the finish and retake the lead.

Another dark horse threat is Ira P. Fulmore's 30-foot ketch Staghound, from Newport Harbor, Calif., unreported four days but carrying a four days 11 hours handicap.

Yacht race headquarters estimated three boats besides Chubasco and Chiriqui would cross the line Friday out of the handicap running.

They are Phyllis Brunson's 77-foot schooner Queen Mab, Catalina Island; Carl D. Jensen's 59-foot yawl Adois, Seattle, and L'Apache, also of Seattle.

Orcas Island Still Mecca For Holidaying Children

Orcas Island is only a dot on the map to most residents of this area but to hundreds of men and women from all over North America, Mexico and Hawaii it is an important spot.

To them its memory of carefree days of youth. Over the years they remember the happy months they spent at children's camp on the island.

This year marks the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Westward Ho boys' camp and the Four Winds girls' camp which is conducted each year on the gulf island. The six-week camp opened on July 1.

The campers are in town now for their yearly visit to the city. They'll be here until Saturday. For many it is their first look at a Canadian city.

Eighteen of the young campers arrived Thursday by the 54-foot yawl Westward Ho, while another group came by ferry Wednesday night and have been housed at University School. There are 86 children in charge of Miss Ruth Brown, who runs the camp.

Some youngsters come back year after year. For example, 11-year-old Edgar Keiser was at his first camp at the age of four. Still others are children of former campers.

The youngsters hike, ride, fish and do all the other things that go along with summer camping.

Postmen Send Delegate With Wage Demands

Postal Employees Parley Scheduled

Victoria postal workers have authorized their delegate to a September convention of the Canadian Postal Employees' Association to support a five-point formula calling for revision of pay and working conditions.

Victoria delegate to the meeting, to be held in Calgary, beginning Sept. 16, will be George W. Somner, president of the local branch.

Jack Hedley, also of Victoria, will attend in his capacity as regional vice-president for B.C.

The formula which the Victoria branch has endorsed calls for:

1. Union recognition.
2. Collective bargaining rights.
3. A five-day, 40-hour week with time and one-half for overtime and double time for holidays and Sundays.
4. An across-the-board salary increase of $500 a year.
5. Attainment of maximum salaries within three years.

FAR BEHIND

Mr. Hedley said post office workers were far behind outside workers with regard to salaries and hours of work.

He called attention to a recent statement made by Daniel C. Cross, national president of the postal employees' association, who complained: "Postal work is of a specialized technical nature yet the hourly rate of a postal clerk is no higher than that of a janitor of some of our major industries."

Postal workers now work a 44-hour, 5½-day week. When overtime is worked, they receive time off in lieu of pay or, if time off cannot be arranged within six weeks, straight-time pay for their extra hours.

Session on Schedule Despite Legal Knots

TRADE AND COMMERCE MINISTER C. D. Howe will speak at the Club Sirocco Tuesday, July 28 at 8 p.m. Liberal party officials said today Mr. Howe will be here on the western swing of an election tour. Mr. Howe is also the minister in charge of defense production.

Recount Won't Delay Legislators In Business of Supply, Says Premier

Premier W. A. C. Bennett said today the special fall session of the Legislature, slated to open Sept. 15, will go ahead on schedule regardless of the legal tangle on two recounts in Nanaimo and Lillooet.

"I don't anticipate any postponement because of the recounts," he said. "It's imperative that supply be granted before September 30 so there will be money available to run the country in the last six months of 1953-54."

He was commenting on mainland reports that postponement of the session might be necessary until the Nanaimo and Lillooet recounts have been settled by the Court of Appeal, which doesn't sit again until September 8.

The recount picture in the province is one of confusion.

A County Court judge has refused Socred Earle Westwood a recount in Nanaimo, and the ex-mayor has appealed. A similar recount request was granted in Skeena. A recount in Lillooet has been refused by a County Court judge because he said he isn't the right judge to hear the case.

The tangle may interfere with return of the election writs at the July 31 deadline.

EXPERT OPINION

But legal experts say this would not prevent the Legislature from sitting September 15. They say the session could go ahead without the two members whose election hasn't been definitely decided.

Latest move in the recount shuffle came Thursday when County Court Judge J. A. Sargent refused a request for a recount of ballot which elected Liberal Gordon Gibson in Lillooet.

The judge decided he had no jurisdiction because the Elections Act requires the recount to be conducted by the senior judge of the County Court, Judge Bruce Boyd.

Socred candidate Conrad Olafson's counsel said he may apply to the Supreme Court for a writ of mandamus to compel Judge Sargent to proceed with the recount.

Meanwhile, in Nanaimo, Murray Reynolds, counsel for Socred Westwood, couldn't say today if he will ask that his appeal be heard before a special sitting of the Appeal Court. It's under consideration, he said.

Mr. Westwood's application for a recount was rejected by County Court Judge L. A. Hanna this week.

Judge Hanna ruled that a provincial order-in-council allowing the recounts and bypassing a section of the Elections Act was ultra vires.

Seven Men Deny Gambling Charge

Two Chinese and five Occidentals charged with offenses concerning an alleged gaming house pleaded not guilty through counsel James J. Proudfoot when they appeared in city police court today on remand.

Charged with being keepers of a gaming house are Victor Lowe and Chan Chin.

Charged with unlawfully being on these premises are Henry Fisher, Vincent Gwozd, Joseph K. Veitch, Jack Finlan and Hector McIntosh.

All were remanded to July 23 for trial.

COASTERS INVITED TO COMPETE

Youthful Speed Drivers Will Race for Trophies

Vancouver Island's youngest auto racers—boys of 11 to 15 years who pilot little soap-box coasters down hill at full tilt—will compete once again in the annual meet here Labor Day.

Sonsors of the event are Wilson Motors, Knights of Pythias and the Victoria Daily Times.

Arch McKeever, chairman of the joint committee representing all three sponsors, is now making arrangements for the meet, that is expected to attract juvenile speed-bugs from all parts of Vancouver Island.

Top prize will be the Victoria Daily Times trophy for the Vancouver Island open championship. This is for cars built rigidly to soap box derby rules, and is currently held by Jim Hansen of Port Alberni.

NEW COMPETITION

Another competition this year, the Victoria city championship for the newly-promised Gibson's Bowladrome trophy and open to Greater Victoria entries only, will replace the former Class A consolation race that was open to all non-winners in the Times trophy competition.

Third racing event will be that for Class B cars—the true "soap boxes" consisting of four wheels haywired to a plank with a box for a cockpit.

Prizes in this event will include the Blue Line trophy and a valuable award offered by Knights of Pythias.

APPEARANCE COUNTS

As usual, the Langford Speedway trophy will be given to the lad who has built the best looking car.

In previous years the race has been held on Yates Street but this year a number of other hills, including the old course, are being considered by the committee.

Boys wishing to build cars will find rules available from Fred Wilkinson at Wilson Motors, Yates and Quadra Streets.

OAK BAY COUNCIL VOTE FROM 8 TO 8 SATURDAY

A slate of three candidates will be running in Saturday's Oak Bay by-election to fill a council seat vacated by Geoffrey Ellis.

Those running for the seat are: George Lyle Dunlop, 3150 Midland Road, financial agent; James W. Maltby, 2965 Foul Bay Road, with the accounts division of the T. Eaton Company, and Fred A. Robinson, general contractor, 1820 Beach Drive, a former member of the council.

Two men will run for a police commission post, also vacated by Mr. Ellis: Retired provincial civil service administrative assistant Kenneth R. F. Denniston, 1960 Bowker Avenue, and radio technician Councillor George Murdoch, 2240 Beach Drive.

The poll will open at Oak Bay Municipal Hall at 8 a.m. and close at 8 p.m.

Kinsmen Donate Hospital Equipment

Equipment to be used in the rehabilitation of patients suffering from after-effects of polio was presented to the Royal Jubilee Hospital Thursday by the Vic Van Isle Kinsmen Club of Greater Victoria. Equipment included an exercising bicycle, shown above being tried by Allen Murdoch, a patient, with nurse Jane Whitfield watching. Presentation was made by E. A. Bergeron, president-elect of club. The club raised $2,400 for polio victims. It allocated $1,000 for medical research and $1,000 for hospital equipment. (Times Photo.)

ASK The TIMES

Q.—Some years ago a movie featuring George Formby, who displayed his antics in a Home Guard unit, was shown here. What were the dates and the name of the picture?—H.L.B.

A.—It was titled "George in the Home Guard," shown at both the Plaza and Oak Bay Theatre, May 22-27, inclusive, 1944.

Q.—Who wrote "The Mystic Spring," and how much should I have to pay for a copy?—A.C.

A.—The author was David W. Higgins of Victoria, a well-known figure in the early days of the province. If you should find a copy on the shelves of a dealer in second-hand books you would be lucky. Copies still in existence are for the most part privately owned. The Victoria Public Library has a couple. When the second was bought it was priced at $7.50. Such books usually increase in value as they become more scarce.

Anyone wishing a question answered is invited to send the problem along to The Times, addressed to "Ask The Times" Editor. Questions and answers will be published daily. All questions should deal with matter of fact and be of general interest.

Royal Anne cherries made their debut at 25 cents a pound and cooking cherries are priced at two pounds for 45 cents.

I always get a yearning for fresh corn on the cob, just about this time of year . . . and today I found just what I was looking for. The cobs are now at the tender stage. ## TODAY'S RECIPE

CHOCOLATE ICE CREAM (MADE WITH CREAM)

Two tablespoons flour, ½ cup sugar, few grains salt, 1 cup milk, 1 egg, 1½ teaspoons vanilla, 1½ ounces unsweetened chocolate, 3 tablespoons hot water, ½ pint (1¼ cups) whipping cream chilled.

Combine the flour, sugar and malt. Mix to a smooth paste with ¼ cup of the milk. Add remaining milk. Cook in top of double boiler, stirring constantly, until thick, about 10 minutes. Add a little of the hot mixture to the beaten egg and stir into the mixture in double boiler. Add vanilla. Cook 2 minutes, stirring constantly. Chill. Melt chocolate over hot water; add 3 tablespoons hot water and stir until smooth. Add to basic recipe whip cream and fold into chilled mixture. Pour into freezing tray and freeze until firm, about 2 hours. Yield: 6 servings (⅔ cup each).

Note: 1 teaspoon gelatine soaked in 1 tablespoon cold water may be substituted for 1 tablespoon of the flour. Add the soaked gelatine to the custard mixture just before chilling.

Sisters Share Ceremony in Sooke Wedding

Dark-eyed sisters, dressed in identical full-length gowns of net and lace over satin, were recent brides in a double ceremony at Knox Presbyterian Church, Sooke. Glenda Marie, elder daughter of Mrs. Margaret Gibson became the bride of Raymone Russell Pimlott, only son of Mr. and Mrs. W. George Pimlott of Sooke, while her younger sister, Esther Agnes, exchanged vows with Richard David Herrling, Seattle, son of Mrs. H. Herrling, Abbotsford.

Identical cascade bouquets of red rosebuds, white baby gladioli and stocks were carried by the sisters, each of whom wore a rhinestone necklace and jewelled coronets which held in place fingertip scallop-edged veils.

Bridesmaid to the elder sister was Miss Fay Marie Brown, Otter Point, who wore a full-length blue taffeta gown with net overskirt, brocaded bodice and a headdress of pleated net adorned with flowers. Her bouquet was of yellow scabiosa and baby gladioli. Miss Lorraine Duncan attended the younger bride and wore a yellow gown similarly styled to Miss Brown's. Her bouquet was of scabiosa, blue delphiniums, and cornflowers. Linda Sullivan was flower girl, wearing yellow taffeta and net and carrying a colonial bouquet of cornflowers and cream rosebuds.

Rev. G. Thompson read the service. Best man for Mr. Pimlott was Rodney Sullivan while Stanley Jones acted for Mr. Herrling. Norman Gibson gave the sisters in marriage. T. A. Dingle was organist. During signing of the register Mrs. Reginald Piercy sang "Here Lord, We Meet," followed by the choir singing "O Perfect Love." Ushers were Peter Dixon and Darryll Shields.

Sooke Community Hall was scene of the reception with 200 guests attending. A buffet supper was served from the dining room where the head table was beautifully decorated with a three-tier wedding cake, Sweetheart roses and tapers in silver holders. Mr. Ralph proposed the toast.

Dancing followed, with the wedding party leading off in a bridal waltz to music by Mrs. E. Bryant, S. Fedosenko and Len Stewart. Both couples chose the mainland for their honeymoons and on their return will reside at Sooke.

WHY GROW OLD?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

Slanting Eyes Are An Asset; Why Not Accentuate Them?

(FRIDAY'S QUESTION BOX)

Q.—"My eyes are small. They also slant. This spoils my looks."

A. — For small eyes use an eyebrow pencil to draw a very fine line just below the lashes on the lower lid. Blend with the finger. Use mascara on the lashes of the upper lid. A suspicion of eyeshadow makes the eyes appear larger. All of this must be very lightly and subtly done. Why worry about the slanting eyes? This gives you an opportunity to highlight individuality. Slanting eyes are considered attractive. Emphasize this tendency by drawing a fine line at the outside corner of each eye, which has an uplift or curves upward.

Q.—"I have ingrown toenails. They are very painful and make wearing high heels terrible! Do you have a solution? Your advice would be truly appreciated."

A.—When you cut your toenails, cut them straight across the tops. Do not curve them. Also, I suspect that you are wearing badly fitted shoes. If the condition is extreme see a podiatrist. Do not try to remedy the situation yourself.

Q.—"I notice that after a certain age the veins in a woman's legs become more noticeable. Can this be compensated for by exercise or by other means?"

A.—This seems to be one of the signs of aging which is more or less inevitable. However, some women of 30 have this in a more pronounced stage than others of 50. It depends partly on inherited characteristics. Overweight also seems to contribute. Those who are on their feet a lot of the time also seem to be more susceptible. There is a theory that lack of vitamin C plays a part. Talk with your doctor about this.

Turned 18, She Would Reform Drinker, 34

By ELIZABETH B. HURLOCK, PhD

There is nothing more foolish or more pathetic than a young girl who believes that her love is all that is needed to reform a man. An 18-year-old writes:

Hurlock

(Q)—"I am very much in love with a man who is 34. He is married but separated from his wife and is planning to get a divorce. She is his second wife. I know he loves me to the point of worship and I know there would never be anyone else for me. He says he has never had anything good or done anything worthwhile in his life but we both believe we can make a life together that can be good and beautiful. He drinks very heavily but I know it is because the future seems so dark to him as I haven't given him a definite answer yet. I believe my faith in living can make a good life for us. Am I foolish?"

(A)—I hate to disillusion you and to sound cynical but I am afraid you are living in a fool's paradise. It takes much more than faith on your part to reform a man who has done nothing worthwhile in the 34 years of his life and already has a record of failure behind him.

The very fact that, at his age, he has had two marriages go on the rocks is certainly not a favorable omen for you. What makes you think that you would be any luckier than the two former wives? And what about the drinking? Isn't this an indication of weakness of character?

Don't give him any answer now but a "no" with the promise that if he pulls himself together, stops drinking, and makes a success of his life, you will reconsider your answer after three, four, or even five years. If he has the character to reform and to turn over a whole new leaf, there might be some hope of a happy marriage for you.

Since he has nothing but failures in his record, don't be too hopeful about the reform. Turn your attentions elsewhere and try to become interested in a man who has something better to offer you than a record like that.

A LONDON LETTER

Ball at Hurlingham Club Delights Young Victorian

By NANCY CARMICHAEL

A date penciled on the calendar and much anticipated was Tuesday, July 7, day of the Coronation Ball at the Hurlingham Club in London. (Arrangements for this ball were completed in January so you can imagine the excitement as we donned our evening gowns, pinned on corsages and did the finishing touches on our make-up.)

Nancy

We were received by Her Royal Highness the Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone, who was president of the ball. Her gown was of light coffee shade with fitted bodice and skirt cut in godets. She wore a diamond tiara.

Also receiving guests was Mary, Countess of Devonshire, chairman of the ball committee.

It was one of those rare and beautiful evenings. The stars shone brightly overhead and not a breath of wind stirred in the trees. Huge tents had been erected for dining and dancing and tables were set out on the lawns. All the gigantic oak trees had been wired with millions of tiny lights and the effect was that of a summer morning, amber, green, red floodlights everywhere, colored fountains playing.

The main ballroom, which was a very large rectangular tent was crowded with dancing couples. The ceiling of the tent was white brocade, shimmering under the light of three crystal chandeliers.

At exactly 10.16 on the floodlit lawns in front of the club house there was a massed display by bands of the Royal Marines.

As the Marines marched onto the lawn the Queen and Duke of Edinburgh took their place on the dais. We were fortunate enough to be very close to where the Queen was sitting but at that time I could not tell exactly what her gown was like because her tall husband was on our side.

Marine Bands Beat The Retreat

The massed bands display and the beating of retreat was a stirring spectacle and the intricate marching most fascinating to watch.

A buffet supper was then served in another of the huge tents. . . Every kind of sandwich, little interesting patties, cold ham or beef, salad . . . everything took on that added flavor out on the lawns under the trees and stars.

After supper a cabaret by Noel Coward was presented in the main ballroom. Everyone squeezed in (worse than the London tubes at five o'clock). We sat on the floor with the microphone in the centre of the room. . . To one side were the golden chairs where the Royal party sat.

The Queen was about ten feet from me. . . Her Majesty's gown was of pale green tulle fitted bodice and tiny waist from which billowed the bouffant skirt. In her hair, a glittering diamond tiara and over her arm a dainty evening bag in the shape of a box of gold brocade. The Queen seemed relaxed and happy . . . laughing and talking with the Duke.

Then the spotlight shifted as Noel Coward came forward with his inimitable songs. It was a great thrill to see and hear him. . . At a few of his more risque lines all eyes turned to the Queen but she was enjoying the show . . . and the Duke was laughing heartily. . . Dancing went on in the main ballroom until five o'clock when a delicious breakfast of scrambled eggs and bacon was served.

The ball certainly lived up to my greatest expectations . . . certainly an evening never to forget!

Taylor-Tomlinson Wedding Held in St. Alban's Church

A wedding ceremony in St. Alban's Church recently united Beverley Louise Taylor, youngest daughter of Mrs. Robert G. Taylor and the late Mr. Taylor, 1003 McCaskill Street, and Ronald Herbert Tomlinson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Tomlinson, Benventuto Avenue, Brentwood Bay. Rev. W. E. Greenhalgh heard the couple's vows and baskets of summer flowers decorated the altar.

Given in marriage by her brother-in-law, Stanley Mawdsley, the bride wore a powder blue suit with white accessories. She wore the groom's gift, a double strand of pearls, and carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations centred with an orchid.

Matron of honor was the bride's sister, Mrs. D. Horn, who wore a beige suit with blue accessories and carried a colonial bouquet of pink gladioli. Bill Howe, the groom's brother-in-law, was best man, and guests were ushered to pews marked with white bows by Eddie Burkmar and Joseph Schmidt.

Reception was held at the home of the bride, where a three-tier wedding cake, surrounded by pink and white streamers, silver candelabra and small vases of pink roses and sweet peas centred the bridal table. Jack Devine proposed the toast to the bride's happiness.

Out-of-town guests were Frank Tomlinson, Long Beach, Calif.; Mr. and Mrs. Russell Taylor, Edmonton, Alta., and Mr. and Mrs. R. Brown, F. Long, H. Walmsley, Cobble Hill.

Miss Hughes is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. L. Hughes and granddaughter of W. E. Rockingham, Halifax, and her groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Hughes Kensington, London, England. Miss Christine Hughes was her sister's bridesmaid, wearing pale mauve nylon net and carrying a sheaf of yellow gladioli. Another sister, Alison, was flower girl, also in mauve and held a colonial bouquet. Best man was Derek Girouard and ushers were John Wallace, Thomas Nimbly and Douglas Somers. The marriage was solemnized by Rev. Holmes, and Mrs. G. M. Atkins, aunt of the bride, sang a solo during signing of the register.

At the reception, which was held in the garden of his home, Mr. Atkins proposed the toast to the bride, and a three-tier wedding cake was cut.

Departing for the honeymoon, Mrs. Hughes changed to a beige gabardine suit with forest green accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will make their home in Montreal where the groom is a member of the engineering staff of the Canadian Overseas Telegraph Communications.

Famed Designer Prophecies Basic Styles Will Remain

MONTREAL (BUP) — You can relax, ladies. A famous designer says the clothes you now own will be in style half-a-century hence . . . if they last that long.

Gilbert Adrian, who has been a pace-setter in women's fashions for 25 years, says styles have crystallized . . . that they finally have settled down. He sees no great change for at least 50 years.

"Fashion's had it," says Adrian. "I don't mean that a woman won't have stimulating new things to wear each season . . . but she no longer will feel panicky about changes. New things won't make last year's out of date."

"What else can fashion do?" the designed asks. "It's had the skirt up to the knees . . . the skirt to the ankles . . . the skirt full . . . the skirt slim . . . the necklines high . . . necklines low. There's nothing left. But out of these flights we've evolved clothes which fit our times."

He goes on:

"Our day-to-day living has caused the envolvement. Women have had a long fashion education . . . been through every fashion experience. But now they're so well trained they no longer can be led around with a fashion ring in their nose."

"Oh we'll have minor changes," the designer says. There'll be new materials, new textures. But there's not much room left for creativeness . . . except maybe in evening clothes."

The handsome, greying designer says simply, "Taste is taking over."

BREEZE THROUGH SUMMER

You'll like the color combinations.

BRIDGE LESSON

By Oswald Jacoby

Today's hand would be quite unimportant in a rubber bridge game. At a contract of two spades, South could well afford to draw trumps and give up three clubs, one diamond and one heart.

The hand was actually played in a board-a-match team contest, and both declarers were quite anxious to win nine tricks if possible. The play at both tables was quite similar for the first few tricks, but then there was an important difference.

West opened the four of diamonds, East finessed the ten, and South won with the king. South next returned a low club, hoping to ruff his third club in dummy eventually.

West stepped up with the ten of clubs to lead his remaining diamond, and East won a finesse with the jack of diamonds. East returned the eight of hearts. South played low and West won with the king. West now returned another heart, and South won with the ace.

Up to this point the play was the same at both tables. At the first table, South continued wih his original plan. He led a second club, and West won with the queen. West then led another heart, and East refused. This held declarer to eight tricks.

At the second table the declarer was my friend and associate, Alfred Sheinwold. He could see that he would run into a heart ruff if he led a second club, so he devised an unusual squeeze play to make the extra trick.

Opening lead—♦ 4

After winning the second round of hearts with the ace, he ran all five trumps, discarding dummy's last two diamonds. He saved two hearts and a club in the dummy, with the singleton jack of hearts and two clubs in his own hand.

When West had to reduce to three cards he found that he could not do so safely. If West saved only one heart, Sheinwold could overtake the jack of hearts with dummy's queen, whereupon dummy's low heart would provide the ninth trick. When West actually kept two hearts and only the blank ace of clubs, Sheinwold cashed the jack of hearts and then led a club to West. Now West had to lead his last heart to dummy's queen, thus giving declarer his ninth trick anyway.

CARROLL RICHTER'S
ASTROLOGICAL FORECAST

SATURDAY, JULY 18, 1953.

Aries (March 21 to April 19)—Get out early; see close friends and associates and make arrangements for years to come. Later, refuse to allow worried family member to upset your calm. Pacify in distress.

Taurus (April 20 to May 20)—Brighten your environmental conditions in the morning in an economical manner. Later, keep plugging away at routines despite the desire to get away to glittering surroundings.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21)—The morning finds you able to find those treatments, wardrobe that bring out your electric charm. P.M., desire to spend recklessly on temporary fun requires control. Be sensible.

Cancer (June 22 to July 21)—Private chat with close tie brings solution to present concerns. Today is also good for aiding shut-ins, etc. P.M., overcome feeling of self-pity; realize your present blessings.

Leo (July 22 to August 21)—Powerful friend tells of interesting, amicable way to attain your ambitions easily. Get at this early. P.M., secret worry is apt to prevent you from carrying through, so keep "on the beam."

Virgo (August 22 to September 22)—Titled executive, governmental officer notes your conscientious application to personal duties and indicates a way to get more assets, property, possessions. Accept hints gratefully.

Libra (September 23 to October 22)—Expedition to see one to whom you are devoted should be made early. An emotional higher-up is looking for a scapegoat, so stay away. You need not be the fall guy.

Scorpio (October 23 to November 21) — Sidestep that temptation to seek brighter, distant pastures, for they are merely mirages testing your ability to stick at the right modes of procedure already begun.

Sagittarius (November 22 to December 21) — Friends, partners, associates co-operate in getting you long-standing desires. Be up early; grasp opportunities with appreciation. Later, high cost of living prevents extravagant desire.

Capricorn (December 22 to January 20)—Be sure to contact boss, higher-up or anyone vitally important to you. Find out exactly what is expected of you, then keep working hard despite the desire to go off on a tangent.

Aquarius (January 21 to February 19)—Get an early start making all the new friendships possible, especially with those with entirely different backgrounds. Don't be cantankerous; control pixyish urges. Get away from monotonies.

Pisces (February 20 to March 20)—A.M., try to come to a deeper understanding with one to whom you are most attached emotionally. P.M. finds you anxious for irresponsible acts in pleasures which are most unwise.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN SATURDAY . . .

Saturday's child is a very ingenious youngster, starting off life with a bang owing to innately good judgment and a pleasing personality. However, the parents or those who have jurisdiction over this youngster are likely to limit his or her scope of activities because of a personal, confining affection. Those in charge can be aware of this and very early cut the silver cord and treat the youngster as an affectionate child instead of as a possession. Then all's well.

SUNDAY, JULY 19, 1953.

Aries (March 21 to April 19)—Quick irritation or argument could follow any contentious acts, so be very kind in a.m. Later, much care should be used where money, property are concerned. This protects security.

Taurus (April 20 to May 20)—An anxious state of mind in the early a.m. is eased by prayer and worship, looking for a better way to live. Later, avoid battle at home over associate.

Gemini (May 21 to June 21)—Get late rest instead of starting early on a jaunt, for you will be disappointed if you carry through. P.M. is a good time to clean out closets, drawers, attend to laundry, etc.

Cancer (June 22 to July 21)—Take care not to take early morning blues out on one close to you. This is not the way to treat one who loves you. P.M., enjoy simple pleasures.

Leo (July 22 to Aug. 21)—Over-anxiety helps nothing; it only turns others away from you. Look facts in the face and follow proven principles. Keep smiling despite inner ache. P.M., repair home pipes, gadgets, etc.

Virgo (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22)—Let an annoyed companion get the anger out of his system without committing yourself to help him, all he wants is an audience. P.M., make detailed plan of operation for week.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN SUNDAY . . .

Sunday's child will be so active, especially in the early years, you will have difficulty in keeping the youngster quiet. There will be much yearning for the good things of life and an impatience over not being able to have them immediately. From earliest infancy impress upon your offspring the need for patience and for following through whatever he starts. The later years then find success in the financial field.

A Warning about Foreign Attachments to Telephones

Telephone subscribers are reminded that the use of telephone attachments unauthorized by the Telephone Company is contrary to regulations governing telephone service. This is pointed out because from time to time certain devices of this kind appear on the market and are offered for sale or for rent to telephone users.

The regulations applying to "non-approved devices" follows:

> The subscribers shall not use or permit to be used any electrical or mechanical apparatus or device in connection with the equipment or facilities furnished by the Company without the written consent of the Company, or permit the attachment of advertising devices thereto. If any apparatus or devices of any kind other than those furnished or approved by the Company are attached to or connected with any part of the Company's property, the Company may remove such apparatus or devices or terminate the service.

This regulation is, of course, in the interests of good telephone service and therefore for the protection of telephone subscribers generally. Some attachments to telephones can impair service. And interference with service on one telephone does not stop with that instrument. Others are bound to be affected.

That's why telephone regulations prohibit telephone attachments without the written consent of the Telephone Company.

Driver Pays Stiff Fine

Eight erring motorists were fined a total of $270 in Saanich police court Thursday afternoon for traffic infractions.

Stiffest fine went to Robert Clough, 1683 Foul Bay Road. Caught on two occasions in July driving cars without being the holder of a current driver's license, he was fined $65 by Magistrate H. C. Hall. He pleaded guilty.

Involved in a two-car collision July 8 at Gorge and Millgrove in which $350 vehicle damage was done, Joseph A. Boyer, 410 Walter, was found guilty of careless driving. He was fined $35.

Two fines totaling $50 were imposed against David Rempel, Mount Douglas Park. He pleaded guilty to exceeding the 50 m.p.h. speed limit—paced at between 65 and 70 m.p.h.—and received a $25 fine. He also pleaded guilty to vioating a license restriction.

Robert John Coutts, 3128 Glasgow, and Sidney A. Child, Haro Road, were each fined $25. They pleaded guilty to violation of a license restriction by driving cars not covered by motor vehicle liability insurance.

Failure to put out warning devices after the truck he was driving broke down on a public highway cost Harry Vogel, Merriman Drive, a $10 fine. Ernest L. Dunn, 310 Belmont, was fined $25 for driving a car equipped with inadequate brakes.

Gnr. John F. Crosby, 129 A. A. Battery, Gordon Head Camp, was found guilty on a charge of careless driving. He was fined $35.

Search for Lost RCAF Bomber Discontinued

VANCOUVER (CP) — Renewed search for an RCAF Mitchell bomber which vanished in the Coast Range last January was abandoned Thursday when a mountaineering party failed to turn up any trace of the wreckage.

The search was resumed Tuesday when a fisherman reported sighting what appeared to be wreckage at the 3,000-foot level of Mount Robie Reid in the Stave Lake area.

STOUT NOT DISTRESS

SHOREHAM, Eng. (UP)—A lifeboat raced into the choppy English Channel Thursday night to aid a "yacht sending distress flares."

The rescuers pulled back into port two hours later and reported the "flares" were the flashing electric lights on a vessel advertising stout.

STOCK EXCHANGE SUMMARIES

Industrials Advance, Golds Mixed, Oils Dip

TORONTO (CP) — Prices continued mixed toward the stock market's close today. Industrials gained steadily in the narrow list of issues trading although price changes rarely exceeded $1. Golds and base metals were mixed in quiet dealings while western oils dipped about three-quarters of a point on the index.

Uraniums and New Brunswick base metals showed a small majority of losses. Gunnar was a bright spot, adding 25 cents at 8.10.

Utilities and manufacturing companies sparked the advance in industrials with Union Gas, B.C. Electric 4¾ preferred and Auto Electric A adding larger fractions.

Golds drew little attention as seniors and holding companies mixed, while juniors traded narrowly lower.

Base metals traded gains and losses about evenly with International Nickel, Waite Amulet and Chromium forward.

Western oils dipped in mid-afternoon. Leading the decline were Central Leduc, Okalta and Central Explorers.

Gains Consolidated On London Exchange

LONDON (Reuters)—The stock markets remained firm today as the gains of the previous days were consolidated.

Gilt-edged issues continued to meet investment support and improved as did the industrial section.

Textiles were again prominent. Motors, aircrafts, engineering and miscellaneous showed small gains.

Foreign bonds were easier.

Profit-taking in oils reduced some recent gains but shippings were firm.

Closing prices: Babcock & Wilcox 63s 6d, Boots Pure Drug 20s, Canadian Pacific $46⅞, Central Mining £1⅝, Consolidated Goldfields 45s 9d, Courtaulds 42s 10½d, Hudson's Bay Co. 94s 4½d, Imperial Chemical 45s 3d, Imperial Tobacco 53s 3d, Metal Box 58s 3d, Mexican Eagle 21s 6d, Rand Mines 62s 6d.

Steels, Rails Push List Up

NEW YORK (AP)—A brief flurry of buying in railroads and steels today pushed the stock market ahead. The upward push was cut off at an outside limit of around a point.

Bethlehem Steel and New York Central Railroad were the most active issues in their own groups. A few other individual issues in scattered areas were active and higher at times.

Over-all the stock market spent most of the session in idleness.

Canadian stocks were higher. International Nickel and Distillers advanced ¼; Hiram Walker gained ⅛. McIntyre lost ½ and Canadian Pacific slipped ⅛.

Vantor Up 2½c

Most prices held steady in light trading on Vancouver stock exchange this forenoon. Vantor was a feature, gaining 2½ cents to 26. Quatsino advanced one to 30. York was unchanged at 34. National Exploration held Thursday's 47-cent level. Giant Mascot was not traded, and at noon was 50 cents bids, down two from yesterday's 52, which was a six-cent advance from Wednesday.

Steady to Mixed

MONTREAL (CP) — The stock market continued along a steady path today.

Many issues were unchanged while gains and losses were in balance and limited to a small range. International Petroleum, active for several days, moved out of the narrow range with a point-dip of 22⅛.

Papers were a little firmer while senior oils and senior metals were slightly easier. Utilities and miscellaneous industrials were irregular. The other major sections held steady.

Pontiac held the spotlight in a steady western oil section, losing four cents to $2.14.

GRAIN

WINNIPEG

WINNIPEG (CP)—Prices held to a narrow range in dull trade today on the Winnipeg grain exchange.

Some export interest was noted in barley, including small quantities sold to the United Kingdom. Export business from the U.K. was also received in oats.

Flax trade was mostly routine.

Rye trade firmed after showing early weakness due to declines in U.S. markets.

Overnight export loadings in wheat included 1,600,000 bushels to the United Kingdom; Austria, 343,000; Germany, 280,000; Italy, Costa Rica, 20,000; Spain, 235,000, and a small parcel to Jamaica.

Prices for top grades of Class Two wheat advanced 1 cent from Thursday. IWA and domestic prices were unchanged.

B.C.'s Dry-Ice Wells Now Have Assured Market

VANCOUVER (CP) — The United States atomic energy commission wants to buy dry ice from British Columbia's newly-developed carbon dioxide gas field at the northern end of Okanagan Valley.

So do other commercial customers as far away as Yakima, Wash., and Regina.

"So far we've had to ask them to hold on," said Charles Gorse, president of Gas-Ice Corporation (Canada) Ltd. "We'll be in production in eight months, by which time our Mara Lake operation will represent a $500,000 investment."

Mr. Gorse said the company, formed a year ago, now has four producing wells in the Mara Lake field.

They range from 69 feet to 200 feet in depth. From them next winter will come the carbonated water which Gorse's engineers say will be converted first into snow and then water.

The company holds leases on 40,000 acres of B.C. land on which it plans to base its new industry.

First U.S. Food For Germans Shipped Today

Another Cargo Ready Next Week

NEW YORK (UP) — The U.S.S. American Inventor sailed for Germany today with the first shipment of food offered by President Eisenhower to hungry East Germans.

Longshoremen hoisted tons of flour, dried milk and lard aboard the freighter at a Hudson River pier Thursday. The ship sailed for Hamburg at 2 p.m. with about 2,800 tons of foodstuffs.

The balance of the 4,500-ton first shipment, valued at $2,000,000, will be sent aboard another freighter next Tuesday.

There was no certainty the food would ever reach kitchens of Communist-dominated East Germans. Red leaders have denied a food shortage existed, and rejected the President's offer of food as a "propaganda trick."

The food was consigned for delivery to the U.S. high commissioner of Germany, and will be unloaded in the British zone of Germany, in nine days.

Cargo handlers were spurred on their job by a sign hanging over a hatch on the American Inventor. It said: "First food relief shipment to East Germany by MSA (Mutual Security Agency) on United States Lines Ss. American Inventor."

The ship's captain said he thought the gift of food was "a worthwhile thing."

"People who stand in the street and throw rocks at tanks have to be backed up with food," he said, referring to recent hunger riots in East Berlin.

Where Reds Cracked UN Line

Arrows on map indicate where over 100,000 Chinese Reds punched a seven-mile bulge in the Allies line on central Korean front. It was the heaviest offensive in two years. Today Allied troops were reported holding firm after having regained a mile and a half of the lost territory.

Front 'Stabilized'; UN Forces Pressing Forward

By FREDERICK C. PAINTON

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—The Chinese Communists who smashed an estimated eight miles into the central front are being forced back under a combined infantry-tank-artillery-plane attack and are surrendering in big numbers, front dispatches said today.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, commanding the 8th Army, said in a special statement that the front is now stabilized and that the United Nations forces are pressing forward.

See Story of Canadian Participation, Page 3.

Eighth Army headquarters said that the Reds lost 14,200 men killed and 6,800 wounded in the week ended Tuesday—and their casualty rate has shot upward since then.

Regrouped, reinforced UN troops gained up to 1,000 yards—more than half a mile—on the left flank Friday after gaining one mile Thursday.

United Press front dispatches described tank-infantry teams knifing into the Chinese lines in nutcracker attackers and said one dominating hill and been recaptured by storm in Friday's advance after an all-day battle.

The dispatches told how hundreds of Allied planes hurled flaming napalm gasoline jelly into the Chinese to burn them to death. Other planes dropped bombs and massed artillery poured hundreds of tons of shells into the enemy lines.

Prisoners Are a Problem

"The Chinese are surrendering all over the place," an American advisory officer on the western flank said.

Tank crews are asking "what to do with all these Chinks."

"Following the Communist attack on the Kumsong front . . . the 8th Army has succeeded in stabilizing the front," Taylor said.

Disclosing that the United States 9th Corps and the South Korean 2nd Corps bore the brunt of the first mass Communist attack on the night of July 13, Taylor said the Allied troops recovered "rapidly from the heavy blows struck by an estimated 10 enemy divisions—100,000 men.

"Commanders have regrouped their units and have pressed back to contact with the enemy in the first resumption of open warfare in nearly two years," Taylor said.

Fighter bombers hurled 1,272,000 pounds of napalm and bombs on the battlefront Friday.

Margaret Said Over 'Crush'

Royal Romance With Air Force Hero Allowed to Run Its Course

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UP)—Princess Margaret returned home from a tour of Africa today just about recovered, Buckingham Palace believes, from her infatuation for handsome Group Capt. Peter Townsend.

Townsend, 38-year-old divorced father of two children, already has removed himself from the scene. After nine years as royal equerry, he started a new career as air attache at the British embassy in Brussels Thursday.

If the Princess was unhappy about his absence, she gave no visible sign as she walked through a cheering crowd at London airport, smiling and waving.

Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh were waiting when the white and silver Comet jet airliner bringing Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth back from their Rhodesian visit touched down at the landing field.

While some 300 persons watched, the Princess waved eagerly from the window of the taxiing airliner to her sister. The Queen boarded the airliner to greet Margaret and her mother with a kiss.

ABOUT OVER

But while the romance is believed to be just about over, the controversy it stirred continued. Readers of the tabloid Daily Mirror endorsed by a vote of 30 to 1 the right of the 22-year-old Princess to marry Townsend if she really loves him.

The romantic wishes of the working class readers of The Mirror, however, had little effect on the romance itself.

During Margaret's tour of Southern Rhodesia with Queen Mother Elizabeth, her anxious family here kept in touch with her by telephone. They feel she now realizes marriage with a divorced man would be impossible for one in her position. Margaret is third in line to the Throne.

Margaret is expected to go to Scotland with the rest of the royal family about the first week in August.

Queen Elizabeth, the Duke of Edinburgh and other members of the royal family take a sensible view of the romance between the Princess and the war-hero pilot.

When it was realized several months ago that she was developing a "crush" on Townsend, nothing was said to her. The Royal Family believed the infatuation would run its course, that Townsend recognizing the difficulties of the situation would see to it that Margaret was not hurt.

The palace, however, did not count on the romance breaking into the open—"being caught in a newspaper circulation battle," as one palace source phrased it.

NO ROYAL CONSENT

Reluctantly then, Magaret was told by her sister, the Queen, that she could never have royal consent to such a marriage.

According to sources, which have generally been right on Royal matters, it was pointed out that in a country which has a deeply religious undercurrent many people would be affronted by her marriage to a divorced man. This would mean Townsend could never take his place as a member of the Royal Family.

Townsend was approached by a high member of the clergy acting for the Queen and the Queen Mother, sources revealed. During this discussion, Townsend was believed to have suggested a transfer to Brussels because of its proximity to London and his friends.

Townsend is not wealthy. As his wife, Margaret would have to live almost as a private citizen.

New Korean Protests May Hinder Truce

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—South Korean officials dealt two damaging blows to prospects for an early armistice today on the eve of a crucial truce conference at Panmunjom.

President Syngman Rhee was reported to have complained to Eighth Army commander Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor over the RoK army retreat from the Chinese before the Allies began their counterattack.

Rhee, according to Korean sources, said the RoKs had been "chewed up" because they had been held back in anticipation of an armistice.

Major Gen. Choi Duk Shin, South Korea's absentee truce delegate, indicated Rhee would never send another representative to the Panmunjom hut.

Choi, who boycotted the talks when the United Nations agreed to the armistice now awaiting signature, said he had "no plans" to return to Panmunjom.

"They (the Communists) don't want peace," Choi said. "They just want a temporary truce to benefit them."

The Communists have been stalling at Panmunjom on the ground that the U.N. has not given sufficient assurance it can control Rhee and his army following an armistice.

Gen. Mark W. Clark, who spent the night at the battlefront, went to Munsan earlier Friday and held a three-hour conference with his chief truce delegate, Lieut.-Gen. William K. Harrison.

They talked privately from 8.40 a.m. until 11.30 a.m. and then Clark returned to Tokyo by way of Seoul.

He was believed to have given Harrison final instructions on what to do when the truce talks are resumed tomorrow at 2 p.m. (1 a.m. EDT) following a one-day recess called by the Communists.

Nationalists Take Red-Held Island On China Coast

TAIPEH, Formosa (AP) — Chinese Nationalist guerrillas who stormed Tungshan Island off the China coast Thursday crushed resistance of "bandit troops," and occupied the principal city, then withdrew today, the defense ministry announced.

The operation, biggest Nationalist action since Chiang Kai-shek's forces quit the mainland in 1949, was described as a complete success.

The announcement said booty was taken but it made no mention of casualties.

Tungshan Island is a county of China's Fukien Province and is by far the most densely-populated island Nationalist guerrillas forces have hit so far.

Reds Grant Amnesty

BERLIN (Reuters). — East Berlin's lord mayor, Friedrich Ebert, announced the release from prison of 1,017 persons serving terms for "economic crimes."

New German Strikes Bring Back Red Tanks

BERLIN (AP) — A Russian tank division rumbled back into East Berlin today as a dangerous new wave of anti-Communist strikes marked the first monthly anniversary of the June 17 workers' rebellion in East Germany.

The columns of Soviet tanks, troops and armored cars stamped and rumbled ostentatiously before dawn through Stalin Allee, a riot focus point a month ago. The Russians poured into East Berlin from the southeast, the east and the north.

Soviet martial law, proclaimed at the June 17 outbreak, was lifted in East Berlin only last Saturday night. The last of the 25,000 Russian armored troops who put down the rebellion withdrew at that time.

It could not be confirmed immediately whether the Soviet forces had also gone back into other East German cities where martial law ended last weekend.

At Merseburg, near Halle, a Soviet-owned buna synthetic rubber plant has been paralyzed since Wednesday by a sit-down strike of 14,000 workers demanding release of comrades jailed after the June 17 rebellion.

An anti-government slowdown has been under way at the Zeiss optical works at Jena since Tuesday. Zeiss employees walked out last Saturday but were forced back on the job Tuesday when the local Russian commander threatened to "shoot every 10th striker." The new Russian march into East Berlin apparently was intended to prevent such strikes from spreading to the east zone capital.

New Trade Agreements With Red Countries

MOSCOW (Reuters)—Russia and France have signed a trade and payment agreement, the Soviet news agency Tass announced today.

The agency published a joint communique by Russia and France which said both sides will deliver about $34,000,000 worth of goods in the first year of the pact.

It said the agreement grew out of a conference on East-West trade called in April by the United Nations economic commission for Europe at Geneva.

HONG KONG (UP) — The Communist New China News Agency reported today that the unofficial British trade delegation signed contracts in Peiping for two-way trade totaling about $72,000,000.

The majority of the British delegation, which arrived in the capital of Communist China on June 19 and reached agreement with the state-owned import and export corporation on July 6, left Peiping on Tuesday for home, the agency said.

Alternative Vote Unlikely To Be Scrapped

Bennett Planning Election Reforms

By GORDON FORBES

Anticipated and possibly extensive amendments to the B.C. Election Act are not expected to scrap the alternative voting system, political observers here believe.

Amendments will be introduced at the special fall session of the Legislature, Premier W. A. C. Bennett said today.

Part of the revision will be to overcome difficulties which have shown up in recent recounts, and the rest may be in connection with the alternative voting system, he said.

He declined to elaborate on changes planned in alternative voting.

But one of the big revisions is expected to be drastic shortening of the three-week waiting period between election day and the day second and subsequent counting is started by the transfer of votes.

The premier has expressed dissatisfaction with this waiting period on several occasions.

Abductor B.C. Man

LINTON, N.D. (AP) — A North Dakota lawyer was retained by a Canadian law firm today to defend a Canadian soldier charged with kidnapping a 33-year-old expectant mother.

States attorney Robert Chesrowen filed the charge Thursday against Donald Blackwell Argyle, 31, of Nelson, B.C. and Regina. Bail was set at $25,000. Time of his appearance in district court has not been set.

Argyle is charged with kidnapping Mrs. Albert Geigle, Strasburg, N.D., late Wednesday after he hitchhiked a ride with her and two other women near Bismark. Mrs. Geigle is in hospital being treated for cuts. A physician who examined her said she had been assaulted.

T. E. George, Jamestown, N.D., lawyer, received a telegram today from Garland and Gansner, Nelson law firm, asking him to represent Argyle.

Husband Charged With Murder

ST. CATHARINES, Ont. (CP) —A 20-year-old mother, Patricia Nelson, died of head injuries early today and her husband was charged with murder.

Police arrested George Nelson, 23, of St. Catharines shortly after his wife died in hospital here. They seized a crank from Nelson's car.

Police said Nelson turned up at the Lincoln county jail at 1 a.m. and talked with the turnkey. Officers were called and found Nelson's car parked in front of the jail.

Mrs. Nelson, bloody and unconscious, was sprawled on the front seat. She was taken to hospital with multiple head lacerations and a fractured skull and died without regaining consciousness.

Ballot Counting Gets Under Way

VANCOUVER (CP).—Counting of ballots on a conciliation board's unanimous wage award to West Coast woodworkers got under way Thursday night.

Stu Hodgson, secretary of Local 1-217 of the CIO International Woodworkers of America, said the results of the vote taken during the last week will not be announced until July 22.

This is the aggregate of scores made in the first stage of the Queen's Prize and the City of London Corporation's long range match, both held Wednesday.

FO. T. W. Gregory of Saint John, N.B., was top scorer with 148 points out of a possible 155.

CAPTURE TOWN 10 MILES FROM CHINA BORDER

5,000 French Paratroopers Make Daring Indo-China Raid

BY LARRY ALLEN

LANG SON, Indo-China (AP) —French Union paratroopers today captured Lang Son, within 10 miles of the Communist Chinese frontier, in the boldest raid of the seven-year-old war against the Vietminh. They succeeded in wrecking the chief supply centre for all war equipment supplied to the Vietminh by Red China.

A military spokesman said that while the troops were not expected to occupy Lang Son for long, the attack proved the French had abandoned defensive tactics and were changing over to the offensive.

Five thousand paratroopers were dropped from U.S.-supplied bombers and transport planes in the lightning raid in the enemy's backyard. They quickly took over control of Lang Son, which had been in the hands of the Red-led Vietminh for three years.

The attack caught the enemy at breakfast. The paratroopers swiftly routed scattered resistance after fighter planes and bombers silenced a group of Vietminh anti-aircraft batteries.

Apparently the three solid weeks of air attack by French fighters and bombers had caused dispersal of most of the enemy's heavy forces into smaller units.

The sky troops lost no time in completing the partial job of destruction done in air assaults. They blew up huge stores of war supplies and ammunition. They dynamited bridges and temporary spans over the Ky Cua River linking Lang Son with Kwangsi Province in China. Military installations were levelled.

Bombers ripped fresh gaps in all roads leading into China over which the Vietminh had been receiving an estimated 3,000 tons of war equipment a month.

Lang Son, on the traditional invasion route from China, long was a key French post in the north. Most of the time after the war was resumed in 1946, the French had to supply it from Hanoi by air or by heavily-guarded convoy from the coast.

The French abandoned the post in October, 1950, after losing a series of posts along the border and in the mountainous north. The Vietminh at once took the place over and made it the chief entry depot for their supplies from China.

GENERAL ASKS INDO-CHINA INDEPENDENCE

HANOI (AP) — Freedom-seeking, anti-Communist Indo-Chinese drew powerful support today from France's top military man in the Far East. Only by giving Indo-China complete independence, Gen. Pierre Navarre asserted, could France win her seven-year war against the Red-directed Vietminh forces.

Seaway Bill Sidetracked By U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Senate's Republican leadership today sidetracked the St. Lawrence Seaway Bill until next January, at the earliest.

Acting majority leader William Knowland (Rep., Calif.) said that even though the bill has the blessing of the Senate's Republican policy committee, it will not be considered this session, scheduled to end July 31.

The seaway bill will not come up, he indicated, because its controversial nature would result in extensive debate.

May End Year With Deficit—Abbott

WINNIPEG (CP)—Finance Minister Abbott today said he "would not be surprised if we ended up this fiscal year with a slight deficit, rather than a surplus."

In an interview on his arrival at Winnipeg, Mr. Abbott based his statement on the fact that during April and May, the first two months of the present fiscal year, the surplus was running about $40,000,000 less than during the same period last year.

Murder Theory in Death Of Three U.S. Hunters

GASPE, Que. (BUP)—Provincial police today roped off the area in which the headless bodies of three United States hunters were found while they checked a theory that a murderer tracked them into the wood and killed them for $1,000 cash.

Unconfirmed reports said a suspect already was in custody. Dr. Lionel Rioux, coroner, said police had a witness "who should know something about this."

The mangled bodies of Eugene Lindsey, 45; his son, Richard, 17, and Fred Claar, 20, all of Holidaysburg, Pa., were found Wednesday scattered through rugged bushland some 50 miles from here.

Officials thought at first they had been killed by bears, but disappearance of their valuables and $1,000 in currency prompted them to investigate the possibility of murder.

Chinese Reds Pulling Back

14,200 Killed As UN Troops Stabilize Front, Press Forward

By FREDERICK C. PAINTON

SEOUL, Korea (UP)—The Chinese Communists who smashed an estimated eight miles into the central front are being forced back under a combined infantry-tank-artillery-plane attack and are surrendering in big numbers, front dispatches said today.

Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, commanding the 8th Army, said in a special statement that the front is now stabilized and that the United Nations forces are pressing forward.

See Story of Canadian Participation, Page 3.

Eighth Army headquarters said that the Reds lost 14,200 men killed and 6,800 wounded in the week ended Tuesday—and their casualty rate has shot upward since then.

Regrouped, reinforced UN troops gained up to 1,000 yards—more than half a mile—on the left flank Friday after gaining one mile Thursday.

United Press front dispatches described tank-infantry teams knifing into the Chinese lines in ever-growing attacks and said one dominating hill and been recaptured by storm in Friday's advance after an all-day battle.

The dispatches told how hundreds of Allied planes hurled flaming napalm gasoline jelly into the Chinese to burn them to death. Other planes dropped bombs and massed artillery poured hundreds of tons of shells into the enemy lines.

"The Chinese are surrendering all over the place," an American advisory officer on the western flank said.

Tank crews are asking "what to do with all these Chinks."

"Following the Communist attack on the Kumsong front . . . the 8th Army has succeeded in stabilizing the front," Taylor said.

Disclosing that the United States 9th Corps and the South Korean 2nd Corps bore the brunt of the first mass Communist attack on the night of July 13, Taylor said the Allied troops recovered "rapidly from the heavy blows struck by an estimated 10 enemy divisions—100,000 men.

"Commanders have regrouped their units and have pressed back to contact with the enemy in the first resumption of open warfare in nearly two years," Taylor said.

Alternative Vote Unlikely To Be Scrapped

Bennett Planning Election Reforms

By GORDON FORBES

Anticipated and possibly extensive amendments to the B.C. Election Act are not expected to scrap the alternative voting system, political observers here believe.

Amendments will be introduced at the special fall session of the Legislature, Premier W. A. C. Bennett said today.

Part of the revision will be to overcome difficulties which have shown up in recent recounts, and the rest may be in connection with the alternative voting system, he said.

He declined to elaborate on changes planned in alternative voting.

But one of the big revisions is expected to be drastic shortening of the three-week waiting period between election day and the day second and subsequent counting is started by the transfer of votes.

The premier has expressed dissatisfaction with this waiting period on several occasions.

MARGARET SAID OVER 'CRUSH'

By ROBERT MUSEL

LONDON (UP)—Princess Margaret returned home from a tour of Africa today just about recovered, Buckingham Palace believes, from her infatuation for handsome Group Capt. Peter Townsend.

Townsend, 38-year-old divorced father of two children, already has removed himself from the scene. After nine years as royal equerry, he started a new career as air attache at the British embassy in Brussels Thursday.

If the Princess was unhappy about his absence, she gave no visible sign as she walked through a cheering crowd at London airport, smiling and waving.

Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh were waiting when the white and silver Comet jet airliner bringing Margaret and Queen Mother Elizabeth back from their Rhodesian visit touched down at the landing field.

While some 300 persons watched, the Princess waved eagerly from the window of the taxiing airliner to her sister. The Queen boarded the airliner to greet Margaret and her mother with a kiss.

But while the romance is believed to be just about over, the controversy it stirred continued. Readers of the tabloid Daily Mirror endorsed by a vote of 30 to 1 the right of the 22-year-old Princess to marry Townsend if she really loves him.

The romantic wishes of the working class readers of The Mirror, however, had little effect on the romance itself.

During Margaret's tour of Southern Rhodesia with Queen Mother Elizabeth, her anxious family here kept in touch with her by telephone. They feel she now realizes marriage with a divorced man would be impossible for one in her position. Margaret is third in line to the Throne.

Elderly Chinese Beaten, Robbed Outside Shack

A three-year-old murder mystery of who killed 83-year-old Chinese, Chew Deb, outside a Duncan auto court, June 30, 1950, has been reopened.

Royal Canadian Mounted Police revealed here today that an Indian, Cecil Sampson, 30, and his wife, Edna, 27, have been charged with murdering the aged Chinese.

The Sampsons, both of Duncan, appeared in RCMP court and were remanded to Oakalla prison farm to appear at Duncan police court July 25, when date for preliminary hearing will be set.

They were arrested by an alert constable in Campbell, California. The constable was called to the home of the Sampson's to investigate a matrimonial dispute. He overheard statements which aroused his suspicions.

A check with police at Duncan confirmed his suspicions and the couple was returned to Canada about ten days ago.

The Times of Monday, July 3, 1950, reports the murder and robbery of Chew Deb, 82, who died in Duncan Hospital two days before.

The Chinese was found unconscious in his one-room shack.

He had been struck down by a blow from a bottle, it appeared, dragged outside and beaten with a stone. He had crawled into his home.

The slain man was easily identifiable from scars on his face, which had been partially blown away in an explosion some years before.

His cabin, on the outskirts of Duncan, near Riverside Auto Court, had been ransacked. The place was in confusion.

Provincial Police, then holding jurisdiction in Duncan, instituted a widespread search. But they did not disclose the identity of their suspects.

First U.S. Food For Germans Shipped Today

Another Cargo Ready Next Week

NEW YORK (UP) — The U.S.S. American Inventor sailed for Germany today with the first shipment of food offered by President Eisenhower to hungry East Germans.

Longshoremen hoisted tons of flour, dried milk and lard aboard the freighter at a Hudson River pier Thursday. The ship sailed for Hamburg at 2 p.m. with about 2,800 tons of foodstuffs.

The balance of the 4,500-ton first shipment, valued at $2,000,000, will be sent aboard another freighter next Tuesday.

There was no certainty the food would ever reach kitchens of Communist-dominated East Germans. Red leaders have denied a food shortage existed, and rejected the President's offer of food as a "propaganda trick."

The food was consigned for delivery to the U.S. high commissioner of Germany, and will be unloaded in the British zone of Germany, in nine days.

Cargo handlers were spurred on their job by a sign hanging over a hatch on the American Inventor. It said: "First food relief shipment to East Germany by MSA (Mutual Security Agency) on United States Lines Ss. American Inventor."

The ship's captain said he thought the gift of food was "a worthwhile thing."

Ballot Counting Gets Under Way

VANCOUVER (CP).—Counting of ballots on a conciliation board's unanimous wage award to West Coast woodworkers got under way Thursday night.

Stu Hodgson, secretary of Local 1-217 of the CIO International Woodworkers of America, said the results of the vote taken during the last week will not be announced until July 22.

CAPTURE TOWN 10 MILES FROM CHINA BORDER

5,000 French Paratroopers Make Daring Indo-China Raid

BY LARRY ALLEN

LANG SON, Indo-China (AP)—French Union paratroopers today captured Lang Son, within 10 miles of the Communist Chinese frontier, in the boldest raid of the seven-year-old war against the Vietminh. They succeeded in wrecking the chief supply centre for all war equipment supplied to the Vietminh by Red China.

A military spokesman said that while the troops were not expected to occupy Lang Son for long, the attack proved the French had abandoned defensive tactics and were changing over to the offensive.

Five thousand paratroopers were dropped from U.S.-supplied bombers and transport planes in the lightning raid in the enemy's backyard. They quickly took over control of Lang Son, which had been in the hands of the Red-led Vietminh for three years.

The attack caught the enemy at breakfast. The paratroopers swiftly routed scattered resistance after fighter planes and bombers silenced a group of Vietminh anti-aircraft batteries.

Apparently the three solid weeks of air attack by French fighters and bombers had caused dispersal of most of the enemy's heavy forces into smaller units.

The sky troops lost no time in completing the partial job of destruction done in air assaults. They blew up huge stores of war supplies and ammunition. They dynamited bridges and temporary spans over the Ky Cua River linking Lang Son with Kwangsi Province in China. Military installations were levelled.

Bombers ripped fresh gaps in all roads leading into China over which the Vietminh had been receiving an estimated 3,000 tons of war equipment a month.

Lang Son, on the traditional invasion route from China, long was a key French post in the north. Most of the time after the war was resumed in 1946, the French had to supply it from Hanoi by air or by heavily-guarded convoy from the coast.

The French abandoned the post in October, 1950, after losing a series of posts along the border and in the mountainous north. The Vietminh at once took the place over and made it the chief entry depot for their supplies from China.

GENERAL ASKS INDO-CHINA INDEPENDENCE

HANOI (AP) — Freedom-seeking, anti-Communist Indo-Chinese drew powerful support today from France's top military man in the Far East. Only by giving Indo-China complete independence, Gen. Pierre Navarre asserted, could France win her seven-year war against the Red-directed Vietminh forces.
